NO. 60—EIGHTY-THIRD YEAR — VICTORIA, BRITISH COLUMBIA, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 1941 — EIGHTEEN PAGES

BRITISH AIR FORCES THROUGHOUT MALAYA GREATLY INCREASED

Neutral Observers Believe Balance of Air Power In Southeastern Asia Now in Britain's Favor—Intense Excitement Prevails Among the Japanese in French Indo-China

SAIGON, French Indo-China, Feb. 20 (Thursday) (AP).—Japanese sailors at the South China Sea base stayed close to their posts, and Japanese officials rushed about in an atmosphere of excitement today, despite professions that nothing was known here about heavy Australian reinforcement of the Singapore base.

Numerous conferences were under way, but no official was willing to discuss them.

The thirty American businessmen here, at Haiphong and Hanoi, discussed evacuation plans in event of the development of a greater emergency.

POWERFULLY REINFORCED

LONDON, Feb. 19 (CP).—The British Broadcasting Corporation tonight quoted an announcement from British headquarters in the Far East that air forces there "have been powerfully reinforced," and that the reinforcements have been stationed in "strategically important areas."

The reinforcements consist of modern bombers, twin-engined fighters and single-engined fighters, the B.B.C. said.

BALANCE OF AIR POWER

BINGAPORE, Feb. 19 (AP).—The fighting strength of Britain's Singapore base was reinforced today by thousands of Australians, and by such great numbers of bombers and fighter planes that neutral observers believed the balance of air power in Southeastern Asia has turned in Britain's favor.

The arrival of the Australians made the Malay Peninsula a veritable powerhouse of military energy.

ROYAL NAVY TO BE AIDED

Observers in U.S. Say Some Form of Naval Assistance To Britain Certain

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19 (CP).—Reports that United States naval repair docks will be thrown open to the British Fleet under the wide terms of the lend-lease bill are current in Washington.

There apparently is no official backing for the reports beyond President Roosevelt's broad policy of all-out aid to Britain and the suggestion of Wendell Willkie, the Republican Presidential candidate in the November Presidential election, that destroyers be sent to Britain at the rate of five to ten a month.

MAY LEND DESTROYERS

It has been suggested in the press that one way open to the President to assist Britain's navy would be to loan United States destroyers while British ships were repaired in American yards.

Another suggestion that has appeared in the press is based on Britain maintaining mastery of the Atlantic while the United States Navy concentrates its strength in the Pacific against any warlike move by the Japanese. Britain's job in the Atlantic, it has been suggested, calls for a preponderance of destroyers, cruisers and small craft suitable for convoy and anti-submarine work. The Pacific, on the other hand, requires big powerful ships.

EXCHANGE OF SHIPS

The suggestion is that the United States trade destroyers and other small craft for use in the Atlantic for a British battleship that would strengthen the Pacific fleet.

The majority of observers here regard as a certainty some form of naval assistance to Britain under the lend-lease bill, particularly with regard to destroyers, the need of which has been emphasized several times by Prime Minister Winston Churchill.

THE TIMES, London

News and Comment on International Events selected from The Times daily and published in The Daily Colonist by special arrangement with The Vancouver Daily Province.

(Copyright, 1941, by Southam Co.)

LONDON, Feb. 19 (By Cable).—Hitler is willing to gain his ends bloodlessly in the Balkans, says The Times editorially. He goes through the empty ritual of accusing Britain of plotting to drag other nations into the war, but success of his methods of occupying Rumania and placing garrisons there numbering a quarter million has encouraged him to pursue the same line with Bulgaria and Yugoslavia.

However, neither King Boris nor his people have yet resigned themselves to their fate.

The pact of friendship with Turkey is not on the Bulgarian side gesture of resistance so much as a cry of agonized despair.

As for Greece, says The Times' diplomatic correspondent, no effort will be spared by Britain when the danger of a German invasion threatens.

According to the latest information received in Ankara, this invasion has been postponed for two or three weeks. Bulgaria, says The Times' correspondent, obviously can not resist.

Turkey, according to The Times' diplomatic correspondent, some time ago decided she would not waste her strength by entering Bulgarian territory to meet advancing Germans there. Her defenses in Thrace are strong and behind them the Turks can build up their strength for more defensive action.

The Ankara Government knows how Britain's strength has grown in the Mediterranean. It, however, has never actually promised to go directly to Bulgaria's help.

According to The Times' correspondent on the German frontier, there is every sign that the Germans intend to march on Salonika, and in the event of Turkey's intervention, to occupy the whole of European Turkey without crossing the Dardanelles. The ultimate aim is to gain mastery of the Mediterranean and deny Britain the use of the Suez Canal.

These plans depend, however, on what use can be made of the Italian fleet. German military leaders apparently prefer to make the first move in the Balkans and await the results of an intensified submarine and air bombing campaign in the Atlantic against British shipping.

Germany is now reported, adds The Times' correspondent, to have 9,000,000 men under arms.

The Germans continue to plunder Norway of food, and Quisling's newspaper explains that Germany is under no obligation to do anything to see that the Norwegians are kept from starvation.

The Germans have removed former Premier Colijn from the editorship of one of the most influential Dutch newspapers and replaced him by a pro-German Dutchman, dismissed from another newspaper before the war because of his pro-Nazi views.

BRITISH-TRAINED TRIBESMEN OF ETHIOPIA RALLYING FOR JOINT ADVANCE ON CAPITAL

Warriors of Gojjam Province, Seething With Revolt Against Italian Rulers, Waiting Arrival Of Rifles From England Before Starting Combined Attack on Addis Ababa

Already Have Taken Towns In Area South of Lake Tana

CAIRO, Feb. 19 (AP). — Ethiopian warriors of untamed Gojjam Province were described in British dispatches today as revolting against their Italian rulers while Britain's soldiers drove forward in an offensive which may besiege Addis Ababa, the capital, within a month. A communique said tribesmen trained by the British forces had captured Njabara, south of Lake Tana, and occupied Piccolo Abbai in the same region.

Njabara, where British sources said several hundred prisoners were taken, is in the wild, insect-infested highlands south of Lake Tana, where the fragments of Haile Selassie's army hid when the emperor, now back to lead his tribesmen, fled the country in 1936.

HOT-BED OF REVOLT

British officials described it as a hot-bed of revolt, never completely conquered, now only awaiting an influx of British-made rifles for the natives to rally in a joint British-Ethiopian attack on Addis Ababa.

Informed Britons said it would not be long before they would be able to distribute the guns.

British troops now are engaged in clearing the Italians out of territory north of Lake Tana in a drive toward Gondar.

Another British force is driving east from the Sudan, aiming at the Gojjam rebel territory south of the lake.

First business for the British forces is to pinch off Lake Tana, for the Blue Nile flowing south of the lake describes a great loop to the west and north before joining the Nile to water Egypt's cotton fields and orange groves.

Informed sources said it was "a matter of hours, rather than days."

Germans Killed in Clash in Poland With Armed Bands

LONDON, Feb. 19 (CP).—Polish sources in London today reported serious clashes in Poland between German police and armed Polish bands and told of extension of German control over business and industry in the conquered country. The reports, broadcast tonight by the British Broadcasting Corporation, said a German general and forty-four men had been killed recently when the Polish bands had fought with police.

Jews Leave Vienna for New Homes

VIENNA, Feb. 20 (Thursday), (AP). — One thousand Viennese Jews, mostly families, left here Wednesday for German-occupied Poland. They were permitted to take along baggage not exceeding 100 kilograms (about 220 pounds).

The rest of their belongings were left in their apartments, keys being turned over to a representative in the Jewish community.

They were permitted to take their money, but it must be converted into Polish zloties.

The transport was the second this month, it was learned, the first having left Vienna on February 14.

WOULD SERVE AS MEDIATOR

Japan Offers to Mediate in War in Special Message To Britain

LONDON, Feb. 19 (CP).—The Government informed the House of Commons today it had received "a special message" from Japan offering to mediate in the war and also accusing the United States and Britain of "warlike preparations" in the Pacific Ocean.

Richard Butler, Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, said that Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden has received this message, couched in "courteous terms," and following the same general lines as the statement issued in Tokio yesterday by Koh Ishii, Government spokesman.

That Tokio statement expressed Japan's readiness to "act as mediator or take whatever action is calculated to recover normal conditions, not only in great East Asia, but anywhere in the world."

RECEIVING DUE ATTENTION

Mr. Butler told the House that the terms of the special message "are at present receiving due attention." The well-informed diplomatic correspondent of the Press Association, however, said that "if a reply is deemed necessary it will not be ready for some time."

Authoritative London quarters said Britain would not "entertain peace proposals until a complete victory has been gained."

It was learned that the message was handed Mr. Butler when the Japanese Ambassador, Mamoru

ONTARIO HOUSE SESSION OPENS

Province's Contribution to War Effort to Be Important in Deliberations

TORONTO, Feb. 19 (CP).—Ontario's contributions to the nation's war effort will exert an important influence on deliberations in the Provincial Legislature this session, Premier Mitchell Hepburn said today in a short address to the Legislature after the reading of the Speech From the Throne.

The Throne Speech itself, read by Lieutenant-Governor Albert Matthews, laid particular emphasis on aids to farmers to enable them to keep up production for wartime needs, and other matters, such as mining development and transportation as related to the war effort.

In accordance with wartime custom, traditional pomp was abandoned, but one untoward incident occurred when the mace, symbol of legislative authority, fell from its red plush cushion before the Speaker, and rolled to the floor.

PRAYER INTERRUPTED

The mace fell just as Speaker J. L. Clark was in the midst of the prayer preceding the first business session of the Legislature.

The Premier said there likely would be some discussion on the Sirois Report and the brief, abortive conference which had been called by the Federal Government at Ottawa to discuss Federal-Provincial relations on its basis.

Legislation to aid the farmers with bonuses on cheese and hogs—the hog bonus to be at least 50 cents per head on B-1 grades and at least $1 per head on A grades—was forecast in the Speech From the Throne. The cheese bonus will be 2 cents a pound.

Charges Wasteful Extravagance in Federal Spending

Conservative Leader Says Civilian Budget Should Be Cut to Bone—Asserts War Effort Is Governed by Political Expediency—Calls for Non-Partisanship in Government

OTTAWA, Feb. 19 (CP).—Describing the Government's record for the past eighteen months as "an all-time high in futility," Opposition Leader Hanson today charged in the House of Commons that the measure of Canada's war effort had been "governed by political expediency."

Speaking in the debate of the $1,300,000,000 war appropriations measure, Mr. Hanson bitterly condemned the Government, charged wasteful extravagance and demanded the immediate, "non-partisan" strengthening of the administration.

"The situation is so bad that the people are now aroused, and relentless criticism of the Government is nationwide," Mr. Hanson said.

WASTEFUL EXTRAVAGANCE

Warning that the Opposition would carefully watch every expenditure by the Government, Mr. Hanson said "evidences of wasteful extravagance are to be found on every hand."

M. J. Coldwell, acting House leader of the C.C.F. party, followed Mr. Hanson in the debate and moved an amendment calling for a compulsory interest-free loan to be subscribed to by those able to contribute, and Government control of the entire financial system.

This amendment was ruled out of order by Speaker Glen, who told the mover he could put it forward again when the House was dealing with the resolution itself. The motion today was to go into committee.

FINE AIR SHOW BY NORWEGIANS

Pilots in Canada Put On Exhibition Worthy of The Best

TORONTO, Feb. 19 (CP).—Norwegian airmen who had barely tried their wings when German invaders entered their country less than a year ago, put on an air show at Camp Little Norway here today which distinguished diplomatic visitors described as worthy of the best.

W. Munthe de Morgenstierne, the Norwegian Minister to the United States, and Anthony J. Drexel Biddle, United States Minister to the exiled Governments of Nazi-occupied countries, were present for the demonstration which took place in a forty-mile-an-hour gale.

Mr. Biddle, who had been in Norway before the invasion, met airmen at Little Norway who had been learning to fly when he was in their country.

Mr. Biddle met Lieut.-Col. G. J. Sas, officer commanding The Netherlands army in training at Stratford, Ont., and tomorrow he will visit Princess Juliana of The Netherlands in Ottawa.

TWO KILLED BY CRASH OF PLANE

EL PASO, Texas, Feb. 19 (AP).—A Hudson bombing plane, en route from Burbank, Calif., for delivery to the Royal Air Force, struck a radio tower and crashed today, killing both pilots. The accident occurred during a high wind.

The pilots, Marino Guglielmetti and Robert McKee, both employees of the Lockheed Aircraft Corporation, were thrown clear of the ship before it burst into flames and was destroyed.

The bomber was one of ten which cleared through El Paso today en route east for delivery to Britain.

TURKISH PRESS EXPLAINS PACT

Relations With Greece and Britain in No Way Affected By New Accord

ISTANBUL, Turkey, Feb. 19 (AP).—The Turkish press insisted tonight that the Turkish-Bulgarian non-aggression agreement in no way affects Turkey's relations with Greece and Britain and that Bulgaria would attempt to prevent any German march towards Greece.

The newspaper Ikdam said that as a matter of fact Turkey now is in a better position to aid Greece, and that if war develops in the Balkans it will be solely on Germany's responsibility.

"There are rumors in Greece which make her doubt her best friends," commented the paper Yenisabah. "We are Greece's best friend. We repeat, we believe in her and we know victory will be hers."

The Turkish radio said that the Axis, in reporting the pact, "has taken advantage of it for its own purposes."

Turkey's ally, Britain, on the contrary, "has not taken this attitude, but has said that she was fully informed of the negotiations and in full agreement with them," the commentator added.

Turning to the Far East, he remarked that the situation there had "passed the stage of talking and become active." The German tone toward the United States, he observed, had become more amenable of late.

GOVERNOR IN MONTREAL

MONTREAL, Feb. 19 (CP).—Lieutenant-Governor Eric Hamber, of British Columbia, arrived here today for a two-day visit to see friends and business acquaintances. He will leave Friday for Ottawa to spend another two days.

RAIDING NAZIS ATTACK SINGLY

Handicapped by Good British Defence Fighters and Bad Weather

LONDON, Feb. 20 (Thursday) (CP).—German raiders, attacking singly in the face of heavy anti-aircraft fire and rough, snowy weather, dropped scores of incendiary bombs on one London district last night and scattered high-explosives on another.

Shops and houses were damaged and some persons were injured, but the fires were extinguished quickly. Before 11 p.m. (2 p.m. P.S.T.), the "raiders passed" signal sounded.

Night fighters met the challenge of the raiding planes before they reached England, attacking them as they crossed the Channel.

Those that got through attacked a coastal town with high explosives and incendiaries. In London, five heavy explosive bombs fell close together in one district, damaging shops and houses. One fire was soon extinguished.

Bumpy weather and snow flurries handicapped the raiders. A bitter northeast wind was racing across the Channel.

RAID WELSH TOWN

German bombers blasted a town in South Wales last night, damaging "a considerable number of houses and business premises," the Government announced today.

Casualties included a number of persons killed, the Air Ministry and Ministry of Home Security said in a joint communique.

The southern part of England and one point in East Scotland also were attacked but in all cases the reported number of casualties was small.

The raids extended from early last night until shortly after midnight.

PAY OF DRAFTEES TO BE INCREASED

Ten Cents a Day Added Making Rate Same as for Privates In Active Army

OTTAWA, Feb. 19 (CP).—National Defence headquarters announced tonight an increase of ten cents a day in pay of reserve recruits training under the four-month compulsory plan.

The increase brings reserve army pay to $1.30 a day, the same as privates in the Canadian (active) army receive.

The statement said that dependents' allowances will be paid at the same rate as those of the active army, contingent upon the recruit assigning not less than fifteen days' pay monthly to the support of the dependent.

JAPANESE HOPE TO AVOID WAR

New Ambassador to U.S. Says Japan Seeks Peaceful Expansion

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19 (AP).—Stressing that Japan is seeking "economic expansion" by peaceful means, but refusing to rule out a resort to force, Admiral Kichisaburo Nomura, new Japanese Ambassador to Washington, said today there would be no American-Japanese war unless the United States took the "initiative."

The admiral told his first press conference in Washington that the same applies to Great Britain.

Japan "will expand southward peacefully and economically" to obtain necessary supplies nearer home, he said.

"I cannot say with absolute definiteness that Japan will not resort to force, but she is doing her utmost to avoid this."

AREAS FOR EXPANSION

He mentioned as areas for "economic expansion" French Indo-China and Thailand, where Japanese influence already is strong, and the rich Netherlands East Indies, with which negotiations for increased oil and other supplies are in progress.

Japan has treaty obligations to the Axis powers—Germany and Italy—and will "observe them faithfully," Nomura asserted.

Reinforcement of Singapore, Britain's naval stronghold in the South Pacific, by arrival of Australian troops and the mining of the sea approaches brought only the comment from Ambassador Nomura that "Singapore is an English base, and they can do as they please with it."

"That doesn't concern us," he added.

LEND MEASURE VOTE DELAYED

U.S. Senate to Continue Debate at Insistence of Several Objectors

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19 (AP).—The Administration leadership failed late today in an effort to obtain a vote on amendments to the British aid bill recommended by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Senators Hiram Johnson, California Republican, Burton Wheeler (Democrat, Montana), and others opposed to the legislation, objected that the Senate had not been given ample time for consideration. Alben Barkley of Kentucky, Democratic leader, assented to further debate later on and the chamber adjourned until tomorrow.

FAVORABLE TO BILL

The day was devoted to speeches favorable to the bill. Senators Lister Hill (Democrat, Alabama) and Tom Connally (Democrat, Texas) urged its passage, the latter calling on Americans to face foreign problems as "a united people."

Late in the afternoon, the Senate ran out of speakers who were prepared to go ahead with their addresses and Barkley proposed that the Senate proceed to action on amendments offered by the Foreign Relations Committee. Opponents of the bill promptly objected and the Senate then recessed until tomorrow.

Prince Bernhard To Be War Flyer

LONDON, Feb. 20 (Thursday) (CP).—Prince Bernhard, of The Netherlands, is training to be a Royal Air Force fighter pilot, The Daily Sketch said today.

The paper said that Bernhard, who is thirty, already has reached the advanced stage of training, adding that "his flying ambitions have full approval of Princess Juliana."

Princess Juliana is now in Canada with her two daughters.

Hurricane Fighters in Greece Evidence of Help Britain Giving

Royal Air Force Ready to Meet Challenge of German or Italian Air Raids in Grecian Skies—Fascists Retreating

ATHENS, Feb. 19 (CP).—Impressive evidence of Britain's air aid to Greece was seen over Athens today with the appearance of eight-gun Hurricane fighter planes. Hitherto British bombers have predominated in Greece, and have carried out consistent attacks on Italian supply lines and troops in Albania.

Presence of the fighters means that the Royal Air Force is ready to meet the challenge of Italian or German air raids in the skies as well as by anti-aircraft.

FORCED TO LINES

A Greek Government spokesman said tonight that members of an Italian company retreating on the Albanian front were fired on by their own comrades and forced to return to their lines.

This claim was made without amplification, along with a statement that during the day's fighting Greek troops ousted the Fascists from two fortified villages and took 300 prisoners, including a lieutenant-colonel and six subalterns, along with important quantities of materials.

Intense bombing activity by Greek aircraft also was reported.

Italian counter-attacks were reported from the Central front. Greek military advices said solid waves of Fascist infantrymen were cut down

Britain's Army Has Trained Numbers of Infantry of the Air

Sky Daredevils in Special Category—Parachutists Secretly Organized—Recent Operations in Italy First Disclosure of Their Existence

SOMEWHERE IN ENGLAND, Feb. 19 (CP).—Britain has created a great "infantry of the air," parachute troops, trained to drop from aircraft and enter into prompt action, either harassing the enemy or carrying out missions to pave the way for attacks by other branches of Britain's armies.

Dropping of parachutists in Italy, disclosed last week, revealed for the first time that this army exists. It has been secretly trained and will play an important role, military officials predict, when Great Britain takes the offensive in other theatres of war.

The leather-clad parachute men, tested and hand-picked, are in a special category. They receive higher pay than an ordinary private in the British Army, who gets two shillings sixpence daily (about fifty cents) plus allowances for efficiency in special qualifications and risks.

The exact amount received by the sky daredevils has not been disclosed. In fact everything about them has been cloaked in deepest secrecy.

The Daily Mail said that Squadron Leader Louis Strange, forty-eight, a veteran of the last war, who learned to fly in 1913, is the brain behind the parachute organization.

GERMANS REPORT FLYER PRISONER

Pilot Officer John Henry Green, Port Alberni, Named in List of Captives

LONDON, Feb. 18 (CP).—Reuters News Agency said today a list of Royal Air Force prisoners given over the German radio included the name of Pilot Officer John Henry Green of Port Alberni, B.C.

He was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross last December.

P.O. Green was born in Vancouver and spent most of his life in Port Alberni where he worked as a stevedore. Word that he was missing was received by relatives in a cable from the British Air Ministry February 13.

Reforms Are Needed In Social Machinery Says Bishop Sexton

Bishop of British Columbia Declares War Provides Stimulus for Action, in Delivering Charge To Annual Session of Synod

"REFORMS are needed in our social machinery to insure greater justice and more real brotherhood, and the war is providing a stimulus for action," declared Rt. Rev. H. E. Sexton, Bishop of British Columbia, in his chacge to the fortieth session of the synod of the diocese, which opened its annual deliberations yesterday morning in the Memorial Hall.

"No one would contend that our political and economic structures of today are perfect," he said. "We are painfully aware of imperfection and wrong and failure, and few people can be satisfied with the widespread disease and maladjustment, resulting from the loss of conviction concerning the reality and character of God.' It is generally recognized that no nation can adequately serve God or man on the basis of doles, relief work and chronic unemployment."

Bishop Sexton delivered his charge against the background of a large Union Jack, its flaming crosses a reminder of the sacrifices and the challenge of the Christian life. Frequently during his address the synod departed from its accustomed restraint in order to manifest an enthusiastic approval of the Bishop's words.

He mentioned a "noteworthy and indeed historic letter," in which the Archbishops of Canterbury and York, the Roman Catholic Bishop of Westminster and the Moderator of the Free Church Council had made a united appeal to the British people on the Christian basis for peace. Following this the Archbishop of York had convened an important conference at Malvern "the recommendations of which will be regarded as revolutionary in some quarters."

FIND NEW ORDER

The conference met for discussion of ways and means of finding a new order of society—a new integration of religion, morals, politics and economics, he said. He quoted the Archbishop of York as saying that in the present crisis, "it is the function of the church to proclaim its principle to pronounce condemnation on all factors of life, including those within its own sphere, which infringed those principles, and then to recognize that the responsibility for action and the decision when to act must be left to those who are actually in charge of the practical side of the nation.

"No one who studies the report of the Malvern conference will be likely to perpetuate the gibe that the Church of England is the Tory party at prayer," declared Bishop Sexton. "On all hands there is talk of 'The New Order,' but it has remained for the church to give the lead, and we may, therefore, hope that Christian people will not allow themselves to be influenced by those who utter the cheap gibe that the churches do nothing constructive."

He said that a profound change had occurred in the emphasis and outlook of contemporary religion, and that Christian leaders today were bent on the formation of an independent Christian public opinion on matters social and economic.

SEEKING MORAL CONTROL

"The oncoming manifestation of Christianity is going to be in the realm of the political, the social and the economic. Christianity is seeking today to bring these significant fields under moral and human, as distinct from non-moral, controls. And it is this determination, which is becoming avowed and general, that stands reflected in the words of our acknowledged leaders, and in the programme of the conference recently concluded," the Bishop said.

Stating that "we are all aware of the widespread and deep discontent over existing conditions in our economic and social spheres," and that "it is for church men and women everywhere to give earnest prayer and their best thinking to the causes of that discontent," Bishop Sexton suggested the immediate formation of groups of church people throughout the diocese for this purpose, bidding them "keep in close touch with our Council of Social Service, which is most anxious to help in the present crisis."

He stated there was an imperative need in Canada at the present time for men of the best character in public life, and quoting the Primate of All-Canada, said that "the quality of the men chosen to represent them in all walks of public life is the responsibility of all Christian people."

RELIGION IN SCHOOLS

Despite assertions to the contrary, there is ample evidence of a popular demand for some form of Christian instruction in provincial public schools, Bishop Sexton continued. "I rejoice to note the keen interest displayed in this important question in many of our parishes, particularly at Westholme. The time has come for definite action, and I anticipate this will be agreed upon at the next meeting of the bishops in April."

In reviewing the activities of the British Columbia diocese last year, the Bishop reported steady progress with the prospects of real advance this year. He pointed to indications of a more vigorous ministry in many of the parishes, and a growing response from the people.

Touching directly on the war situation, Bishop Sexton paid tribute to the calmness and courage of the British people, whom he said were fighting in a representative capacity for the future of mankind.

LONG AND PAINFUL

"The path before us may be long and painful, but we must advance along it with unfaltering steps until our efforts are crowned with victory. We know that behind the visible facts of the war is the invisible presence of God, who reigns in the world and who is working out His Divine will in spite of the apparent successes of man who resist it," he said.

He emphasized that people never needed more than they do today the help that the church alone can give, and reminded his hearers that "it is by being good and devoted priests that we clergy can serve our country best at this time."

"In addition to our customary duty of preaching the Word and administering the Sacraments, we have to comfort the sick, the bereaved, and maybe the wounded. We have to train the children and minister to the aged. But beyond this, let us remember that we have to strengthen our people to meet the greatest strain that has ever been imposed upon them as a nation," Bishop Sexton declared.

LABOR COUNCIL HOLDS MEETING

Urges Greater Attention to Dental Troubles of School Children Here

At the meeting of the Victoria Trades and Labor Council last night, it was moved that a letter be sent the Victoria School Board, asking that the city employ a full-time nurse or dentist to care for the dental troubles of the school children.

A letter from Hon. G. M. Weir, Provincial Secretary and Minister of Education, explaining the source of Provincial grants to various school boards for the care of children's dental troubles, will be enclosed with the letter to the Victoria board.

The council will act on a motion censuring the subletting of Government contracts to shops that do not pay the Government scale of wages to the employees, at the next sitting when more information on the matter has been brought forward.

SEEK CLARIFICATION

A letter will be sent to the Trades and Labor Congress asking definite clarification of the area over which the Victoria Council has jurisdiction. It is claimed that the Vancouver Council is urging Nanaimo groups to join its organization, although that city is in Victoria's territory.

The last Friday of each month was selected as the organization committee meeting night and each union is asked to send at least one delegate to every meeting.

Charles Chivers was appointed at the meeting last night to the board of the Family Welfare Association for the forthcoming year.

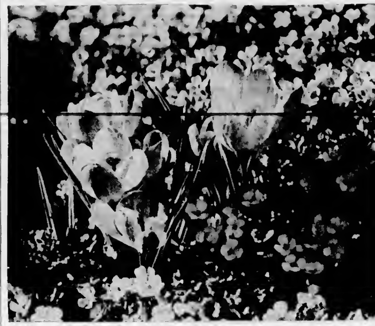

Credentials from R. Bowvette, a new delegate to the council, from the papermakers' union, were accepted at the meeting.

The bakery workers were reinstated into the council at the meeting, and the sheet metal workers of Victoria have asked to become associated with the council, it was reported.

DIES AFTER ACCIDENT

ALBERNI, Feb. 18 (By B.C. Police Radio).—Shinden Mitsue, twenty-eight, Japanese employed by the Trans-Pacific Lumber Company at Poett's Nook, died there last night as a result of an accident during logging operations earlier in the day.

Victoria Gardens Appear in Bloom

Photographed by The Colonist photographer, the flowering crocuses and aubretia shown above are typical of the colorful gardens seen throughout Victoria with the advent of Summer weather. The gardens in the city exhibit many forms of flowers, normally blooming much later in the season. The unusually mild Winter, and recent sunny days, have materially aided in guaranteeing the city's claim to being the "Garden of Canada."

CROWN'S CASE IS COMPLETED

All Evidence Against Jack Archie Submitted at Preliminary Hearing

Evidence in the preliminary hearing of the murder charge against Jack Archie, otherwise known as Everett Archie Alexander, was completed before Magistrate Henry C. Hall in the Provincial Police Court yesterday afternoon. Cross-examination of the final Crown witness was deferred until next Wednesday.

A police constable and five Indians, among them the accused's father, stepmother and common law wife, were yesterday's witnesses. Archie is charged with murdering his friend and fishing partner, Alphonse Kelly, late last December.

Bert Underwood, a resident of the East Saanich Indian Reserve, told of his part in carrying the body of Kelly from the beach to the home of his father on the morning of December 28. He found a bottle on the dead man, similar to one displayed in court, which contained rubbing alcohol.

WERE FRIENDS

Under cross-examination, he testified that the accused and the dead man were friends. He said Kelly drank quite a bit and was difficult to handle when drunk.

Ignatius Pelky, also from the reserve, told of hearing a shot on the night of December 27, about 10:10 o'clock. Five minutes later he heard two more. He thought they were rifle shots. The next day he was talking to Archie in the kitchen of Kelly's house.

"I said, 'what happened, Jack?'" the witness testified.

Archie answered, "I don't know."

Simon Tommy said he went to anchor his canoe with his son on December 27 about 9 p.m. He heard singing and recognised Kelly's voice. He corroborated Pelky's evidence about the conversation in the kitchen of Kelly's house.

WIFE TESTIFIES

Clara Jack told of having had dinner with Kelly and Archie on Friday at Kelly's house after which the two men set out for Sidney to sell crabs. The next morning she went to Claxton's house, where Archie's father lived, and where Jack Archie had gone on the night of the twenty-seventh, and told the accused that Kelly was dead.

She testified that the accused said nothing, and in answer to a question swore that she didn't see the expression on his face because she wasn't looking at him. She told the court she had heard a shot the previous night at 10 o'clock, and another at midnight. Under cross-examination by H. W. Davey, defence counsel, she said Kelly and Archie were very friendly.

Elsie Alexander, stepmother of the accused, and Archie Alexander, his father, told of Archie's coming to the house at 12.30 a.m. on December 28. They said he was cold and shivering, and had been drinking. The accused mumbled something about being the only one able to swim, he managed to get ashore, but Kelly reached the beach also.

The father said he did not ask his son any questions, but helped him off with his gum boots.

W. B. Colvin appeared for the Crown.

Radio Stars To Perform At Armoury

Dorwin Baird and his Treasure Trail, popular on the C.B.R. network, Vancouver, will come to Victoria on Saturday evening, March 8, to give one of his programmes at the Armoury in aid of the Women's Auxiliary to The Canadian Scottish Regiment. Announcement of the coming of Treasure Trail was made at the meeting of the auxiliary held yesterday afternoon at Government House.

Treasure Trail was originated by Dorwin Baird and Dick Diespecker, a former Victorian, now serving with His Majesty's Forces, and will be presented here as it would be in the Vancouver broadcasting studios, in the form of a quiz programme, with a pot of silver as the grand prize. As the programme will not be heard over the air, no letters are needed and listeners of the programme are requested not to send letters to the special entertainment here.

The roving microphone will be used and the evening promises to be both educational to young and old as well as amusing.

MUSICAL PROGRAMME

A musical programme is being arranged, and the committee in charge of arrangements is under the general convenership of Mrs. Robert D. Harvey, with the following members acting: Advertising, Mesdames G. N. Douglas, J. R. Kingham, B. J. MacDonald; tickets, Mesdames L. J. Glassford, A. J. Baker; seating, Mesdames S. H. Okell, Leslie Macdonnell, S. J. Gadsden; entertainment, Mesdames Brooks Stephenson, C. R. Butt, H. B. Combe and Stuart Robertson.

Parcels were collected for "Bundles for Britain" by Mrs. W. M. Crawford for a group of Oak Bay women. Satisfactory plans are progressing for the gift house contest, and sale of tickets will be announced shortly.

Shigimetsu, visited him at the Foreign Office on Monday.

It is understood the Ambassador asked the reason for the alarm which was in evidence in Britain and the United States last week in connection with the Far East. It is understood Mr. Butler gave the Ambassador a four-point reply.

GIVES FOUR REASONS

The Foreign Under-Secretary told his visitor it was due to the recent speech of Japanese Foreign Minister Yosuke Matsuoka, reports of Japanese naval units cruising off Indo-China, the reinforcing of the troops on Hainan Island and the rumored finding in a plane shot down over China of plans for a Japanese southern push.

The Ambassador asserted the airplane report was "Chinese propaganda."

In the meantime authoritative sources have seen an improvement in the Far East situation, reflected in the friendlier tone of the Japanese press and Government utterances and in the fact that Japan has not undertaken any offensive.

It is suggested that this is due to increasing realization that Britain and the United States are prepared to take a firm stand in the Far East. Informed sources do not doubt that the Axis has been encouraging the Japanese to create a diversion, especially in the hope it would balk speedy passage of the United States Lease-Lend Bill.

ANNUAL SYNOD SESSION OPENS

Clergy and Laity of B.C. Diocese Pledge Missionary Fund Support

More than 100 clerical and lay delegates from all parts of the Island gathered in the Memorial Hall yesterday morning for the opening of the fortieth annual session of the synod of the Diocese of British Columbia, presided over by Rt. Rev. H. E. Sexton.

The opening meeting was preceded by a choral service of Holy Communion in Christ Church Cathedral, at which Bishop Sexton was the celebrant, assisted by Dean S. H. Elliott and other priests of the Anglican Church.

Following delivery of the charge by the bishop of the diocese, Rt. Rev. L. R. Sherman, Bishop of Calgary, addressed the synod on the larger contributions needed this year from the diocese.

$6,000 APPORTIONMENT

Introduced by Bishop Sexton as one of the outstanding leaders of the church in Canada, Bishop Sherman dealt with the decision of the executive council to voluntarily forego the customary grants from the mother church in England, resulting in an apportionment of $6,000 to the British Columbia diocese for the support of the home and overseas mission fields, together with the social service and educational undertakings.

He asked the diocese to pledge the sum appointed, instead of merely accepting such apportionment, and to make the task a diocesan effort.

The synod unanimously and enthusiastically pledged the diocese to raise, and to promptly and regularly remit, the amount asked for, and thanked Bishop Sherman for his able advocacy, as well as for his inspiring address in the cathedral on Tuesday evening.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

At the afternoon meeting the following were elected to the executive committee of the diocese: Representing the rural deanery of Victoria, Rev. O. L. Jull and O. M. Prentice; rural deanery of Nanaimo, Rev. Canon T. M. Hughes and L. P. Foster; rural deanery of Comox, Rev. E. Linfoot and Theed Pearse; representatives at large, Rev. T. R. Lancaster, Rev. Frederic Pike, Rev. Fred Comley, Rev. Canon N. E. Smith, Rev. Dr. W. C. Western, Sir Richard Lake, K.C.M.G., Captain C. P. Gibson, F. E. Anfield, Cumberland; J. H. Hinton and H. H. Smith.

The diocesan treasurer, G. Hamilton Harman, presented the financial report for 1940, which was discussed and finally adopted, as was the schedule of assessments and apportionments.

Mr. Harman was again elected as diocesan treasurer and Ismay, Boston, Holden & Company as auditors.

Gift Will Be Sent To British Nurses

The Victoria unit of the Overseas Nursing Sisters' Association made plans at their meeting last night at the home of Mrs. S. G. Cave, St. Patrick Street, to send a contribution to the Royal College of Nursing in London for the relief of British nurses rendered destitute by enemy air raids.

The president, Miss M. E. Morris, was in the chair and seventeen members attended. Miss McLagen reported that the Red Cross workroom in the Market Building had been reopened on February 3 and that a considerable amount of dressings had been made.

Mrs. Cave gave a report of the unit auxiliary to Esquimalt Military Hospital, magazines, books and flowers having been given to the patients. Plans were made for a book shower to be held at an early date. Tentative plans were also made for a rummage sale next month.

After the meeting a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments served.

Beaver Club, Bright Spot for Canadians In London, Year Old

Duke of Gloucester Attends Birthday Party at Y.M.C.A. Recreation Centre—Wife of Canada's High Commissioner Cuts Cake

LONDON, Feb. 19 (CP).—The Beaver Club, recreation centre operated by the Young Men's Christian Association, which has come to be known as "Home away from home" for Canada's fighting sons overseas, celebrated its first birthday under the Royal patronage of the Duke of Gloucester today.

Upwards of 2,500 Canadians, including High Commissioner and Mrs. Vincent Massey and senior officers of the three fighting services, overflowed from the ballroom into other parts of the club property.

There was music galore, rendered by the band of a Northern Alberta infantry regiment, songs of the troops themselves, and a chance.

PRAISE FROM DUKE

In a brief speech, the Duke of Gloucester said so far as Old Country people are concerned there is no trouble too great to make members of the Canadian forces feel at home." He warmly congratulated the club on its "most successful year of operation."

Mr. Massey turned in a polished job as master of ceremonies. Relieving activities of the club in the year since it was formally opened by the King and Queen, he related that thousands of meals are served daily at cost. Twenty thousand non-commissioned officers and men were enrolled as club members. More than 850,000 men of Canada and other parts of the Empire had been served in the canteen, the snack bar and the cafe shop.

He expressed thanks for £32 825 ($160,071) donated to the club and added he was "very especially indebted to the Canadian Y.M.C.A. and all those in Canada who have accorded their support towards the financial backing of the club amounting to £10 000 annually."

SPEAK FOR MEN

Major-General P. J. Montague, Commodore L. W. Murray and Air Commodore L. F. Stevenson individually expressed thanks to the club on behalf of the men of the Canadian army, navy and air force.

The club's great circular ballroom was the hub of the party. Ringed around it were more than 1 000 men, in khaki, navy blue and the sky blue of the air force, and scores of the 1,200 voluntary women who, from time to time, operate the services of the club through fair weather and bombing raids.

Bankers of the three fighting services hoisted a five-liter cake

CHURCH TO AID WAR SAVINGS

Presbytery Forwards Plan To Assist Government in Sale of Bonds

Plans for the support of the Dominion Government appeal for the purchase of War Savings Stamps [illegible] the United Church of Canada, were announced at the meeting of the Victoria Presbytery of the United Church held in the Metropolitan Church here last night.

To be carried out by all United churches across Canada, the plan involves appeals to the church congregations by the ministers and officers of the churches. The stamps or bonds bought by the congregations of members are to be made out by them to the order of the church and will be redeemed at the end of the seven and one-half-year maturity period. The money will be used to compensate for the $1,700,000 deficit incurred by the United Church during the depression years. The plan was forwarded by Dr. G. A. Wilson, former superintendent of missions, Vancouver.

The presbytery meeting, starting yesterday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock, will continue today, when the election of officers will take place. Officers appointed to handle the war savings campaign here included Rev. De W. J. Sipprell, Dr. W. G. Wilson, Rev. Peter Henderson, F. Bennet, J. Johnston, Mrs. M. Moore, Mrs. E. D. Milbourn, Mrs. Brand and Dr. Milburn.

DR. HUGH DOBSON

At the evening session of yesterday's meeting, members of the presbytery and lay friends were addressed by Rev. Dr. Hugh Dobson, Vancouver, on the subject of "Reconstruction Work of the Church." The speaker dealt with the early reconstruction by the churches throughout the world of the problems that would face the countries of the world in the future and their efforts to alleviate them.

The speaker declared the present-day struggle for freedom, dealing with the term of freedom in the spiritual sense, indicated the part the church played and the parts they should be played by the individual in maintaining this freedom and defending it where lost.

The meeting was under the chairmanship of Rev. A. MacLean, Port Alberni, the moderator.

ASK STATEMENT ON CORPS FEES

No Statement Made by Vancouver Automobile Body Regarding Local Money

Despite repeated requests, no accounting of the disposition of over $3,000, collected as fees from local members of the Women's Ambulance Corps by Vancouver officials of the B.C. Automobile Association, has been made to the Victoria branch, according to a statement made by Mrs. Barclay Ross, commander of the local unit yesterday.

Resigning Tuesday from Vancouver where she had gone to obtain the accounting requested over two days ago, at the time the Victoria unit separated from the Vancouver organization, Mrs. Barclay declared that she "had been unable to get any satisfaction from any of the Automobile Association officials."

UNIT REORGANIZED

The Victoria unit of the B.C. Automobile Association Women's Ambulance Corps, organized by Frank Bird, Vancouver manager of the Automobile Association, and Mrs. Jessie M. Cregg, Victoria, separated from the parent body and organized when it was found that although the members were paying their fees of $15 apiece regularly, they were not obtaining the courses promised them at the time of enrolment.

Among courses of instruction promised the members at time of enrollment were first aid and home nursing instruction, to be given by the St. John Ambulance Association, A.R.P. instruction by the same group, signalling, mechanics, driving, truck and car driving, and motorcycle riding.

NO ARRANGEMENTS MADE

Although organized in November of last year, none of the courses was forthcoming, with the exception of the drilling. On separating from the Vancouver body, the local officials made inquiries locally concerning the probable date at which the courses would begin. They said that no arrangements had been made with any local bodies for any of the courses.

Approached by an official of the W.A.C. last week, F. A. Jackson, of the St. John Ambulance Association, said that "it was the first time he had been approached by any official of the W.A.C. for a course in first aid and home nursing. Arrangements are under way for a course to be given by the St. John Ambulance. The rate for the course, as defined by Vancouver officials of the W.A.C., does not approach the rate set by the St. John Ambulance Association and was set without the knowledge or agreement of Victoria officers of the association.

Courses in motor mechanics are being given the members of the Ambulance Corps by the National Motors here, free of charge. They had not been approached by any of the, Vancouver A.A. officials regarding arrangements for the course, previous to the time of reorganization when local officers of the W.A.C. took over.

There has been no provision made for any instruction in motorcycle driving, car or truck driving, or signalling, as promised recruits at time of enrollment.

Vote for U.S. Naval Bases Passes House

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18 (CP).—Plan to develop United States naval outposts at Guam and Samoa was speedy and unanimous approval of the House of Representatives today after the navy's high command recommended strongly that any protest by Japan against the Guam project be "totally disregarded."

There was not a word of protest when the item went through today in a bill to authorize a $242,000,000 naval base development programme. The measure now goes to the Senate

FIRE DESTROYS INDIAN SCHOOL

Unit of tstitution at Alberni Burned—Dormitory Building Saved

ALBERNI, Feb. 19 (CP).—Fire last night destroyed the schoolroom unit of the new Alberni Indian School, but was kept from spreading to other buildings by work of the school staff and the Alberni Volunteer Fire Brigade.

No estimate of the damage has yet been made. The entire school, which houses 315 Indian children and staff of twenty, was completed a few months ago at a cost of $185,000. It was to have been opened formally next Friday.

There were no sleeping quarters in the building destroyed. Dentistories are in separate buildings.

SUSPECTED FIRE

Rev. R. C. Scott, school principal, said he smelt an odor like overheated iron in the school building about 10 20 p.m., but a tour of the building at first revealed no fire, although a small quantity of smoke was seen coming from the basement heating apparatus.

While the tour of inspection was in progress flames were seen to burst from the windows. The staff tried to fight the fire while a call was put in for the volunteer fire department, which arrived in seven minutes. No one was injured.

Four years ago almost to the day the entire school was destroyed by fire.

Malaya today had the greatest man power strength in its history.

WELCOMED BY GOVERNOR

Sir Shenton Thomas, Governor of the Straits Settlements, broadcast his welcome, said the Australians were "fighting men with the desire —to get at and stamp on the face as their kin stamped on Mussolini in Africa."

He added that the Australians were here for defence purposes.

"Their arrival need not cause anxiety to any of our neighbors, but if we are attacked we shall fight," the Governor said.

Major-General H. Gordon Bennett replying to the welcoming address, declared the Australians under his command were trained storm troops, and concluded:

"Your war is our war. Should any enemy come this way, Australia will be there."

CHINESE CO-OPERATING

Chinese residents, who form Malaya's largest and most important racial minority, are organizing to help in protecting the country. An air defence programme is being vigorously pushed ahead in all ports and centres of population. Bomb blast screens are installed to protect important buildings in Singapore, and a plan is being perfected to disperse the unessential population to the nearby mountainside in event of an emergency. Hundreds of shelters are being built in the hilly areas of Central and Northern Malaya.

Britain's Chief Fleet commander, Vice-Admiral Sir Geoffrey Layton, hailed the arrival of the Australians as a demonstration of the power given by British command of the sea, which enables us to station our forces where they are most needed."

MILD WEATHER WILL CONTINUE

Victoria Enjoys Its Fifth Successive Day of Spring Sunshine

After five successive days of clear skies and warm sunshine with bulbs already blooming profusely in open gardens, people of Victoria have reached the conclusion that spring has come to stay. And last night the weather man predicted that there would be no break yet in the period of mild weather.

Temperatures in Victoria during the past five days have ranged up to 54 degrees, and the minimum recording has never fallen below 41 degrees. Heavy overcoats have largely been discarded in daytime, and everywhere along the waterfront and in parks and gardens Victoria's Prairie and Eastern Canadian visitor is now able to see the banking in sunshine that has real warmth in it, while their home towns shiver in snow and sub-zero temperatures.

There has been a light dusting of frost on the ground here on recent mornings, giving a pleasant tang to the dry, clear morning air, and quickly dispelled by bright sunshine out of a cloudless sky.

"Light winds, fair and mild, with light frost at night," was the forecast made in last night's weather bulletin for Victoria and vicinity. Yesterday's maximum temperature was 51 degrees, and the minimum recording was 41 degrees, with a minimum on the grass of 36 degrees.

Victoria enjoyed nine and one-half hours of bright sunshine during the day, as the city has done on each of the past five days.

AUSTRALIA AT WAR

The landing of many thousands of Australian ment, at Singapore for the defence of the Malayan Peninsula, illustrates once more the great effort being put forth by that Commonwealth in the common cause of Empire. The Australians have played a leading part in the successful campaign in Libya; they have troops in Palestine as well as in England. Their airmen are with the Royal Air Force in England and Africa, and a continuous stream of reinforcements for them has been passing through this Dominion from the Antopides on their way to take part in the Battle of Britain. Their Navy, operating in the Mediterranean, patrolling portions of the Pacific Ocean and engaged in convoy work in Eastern Seas, has made a notable contribution to war effort. Their munition plants in the homeland have been brought to a high scale of production, and it was recently noted that Bren guns there are now in production, although the industry was begun less than two years ago. The initiative and improvization in Australia's contribution to the War have been an inspiration.

Australia will be defending her own country, no less than the Empire as a whole, in the Malayan Peninsula. It is significant of what Australia is doing that no political considerations stand in the way of her troops being sent anywhere. They go wherever they are wanted at the request of the British Government. Australia's effort is an "all-out" one, as it has been described by Mr. Menzies, the Prime Minister. While there are no official figures to show the number of Australian troops now overseas, it is variously estimated as from 80,000 to 100,000, and many more, fully trained, stand ready for transportation wherever they are needed. Australia is in this War for all she has and is. The nature of the triumphs she has already achieved is spurring her on to increasing effort and sacrifice.

A MILITARY QUESTIONNAIRE

The ways of military administration, as decreed from Ottawa, are, upon occasion, strange and confusing. There has been a recent illustration that cannot have failed to create a good deal of perturbation among the Reserve Force (formerly the Non-Permanent Militia) as to the meaning, the purpose and the inspiration of a questionnaire, a novel and puerile method of dealing with any branch of military affairs in time of war. The members of the force throughout the country were asked to give a categorical answer to one or other of the three following questions:

A. Those willing to volunteer for Active Service
B. Those willing to volunteer for Home Defence
C. Those not willing to volunteer for A or B

The third choice, as applied to those in military service, is an absurdity. On the face of it, men who answered C in the affirmative, that is to say those who refused either Active Service or Home Defence, should be struck off the strength of the Reserve Force, for they are acting a lie. They would be construed as volunteers who have no intention of fulfilling any purpose for which they volunteered. This explanation, however, is entirely erroneous. There are men in the Reserve Force who are awaiting their turn to be called up for service, either in the Navy or in the Air Force. The problem for them in answering the questionnaire was, therefore, a puzzling one. If they replied that they were willing to volunteer for active service, that meant active service with the Army, whereas their names are on the waiting list of either the Navy or the Air Force. Similarly, if they volunteered for Home Defence, they could be summoned to assume duties which would prevent them answering the call when it came from either of the other services. Moreover, the questionnaire gave no indication of whether "active service" meant overseas service or home defence. Rather than lose their chances of joining the Navy or the Air Force, many answered the questionnaire by expressing their unwillingness to volunteer either for Active Service or Home Defence—with the Army.

The questionnaire, too, presented other complications. Not only did it give no indication as to what was meant by Active Service, but it left it equally vague as to what was meant by Home Defence. Men in the Reserve Force are, for the most part, civilians engaged in gainful occupations, some of them conducting businesses. There are many of the members of the Reserve Force who are heartily willing to volunteer for Active Service, but they want to know if it is going to be service overseas. Others, before volunteering for Home Defence, must know to what extent they would have to wind up their civilian affairs before giving an affirmative answer to question B. Since they were left in the dark in this particular, the likelihood is that many, perfectly willing to serve their country, could do nothing because of the perplexing character of the questionnaire save express "unwillingness" to volunteer for either Active Service or Home Defence.

There is still another aspect of the questionnaire which requires elucidation. It is a notorious fact that many young men during some months past have been joining the Reserve Force for the purpose of escaping conscription, that is, being called up for thirty days' military training. How did these men answer the questionnaire? If they were willing to engage in Home Defence, there was no need for them to elude the draft. If, on the other hand, they were willing to engage in Active Service, the opportunities have been many since the War started. Ottawa will have a record obtained through the questionnaire, but it will be of exceedingly doubtful value, perhaps of little or no value at all, since those who answered were called upon to do so categorically without any knowledge of what are the implications.

The worse feature of the questionnaire is that the Reserve Force as a whole will be placed in an invidious light in the eyes of the people. There is some knowledge already of the nature of the answers, but little public appreciation of the difficulties in the minds of the members of the Force in expressing their intentions. In recruiting and in the general administration of military affairs during the course of this War, Ottawa has not only bemused the public, but many times has kept the men enlisted in all branches of the Militia on tenterhooks. The questionnaire alluded to is a case in point. The Government has the authority to summon to service all the man power it requires, and yet it engages in a childish questionnaire, demanding categorical answers without any explanation whatever of the purposes intended.

OVERTURES FOR MEDIATION

It is only of ephemeral interest that Japan should have offered to mediate in the War. Great Britain is on record as having the intention that there will be no mediation until success crowns British arms. The only point in the Japanese offer is that it must have been inspired by Germany. It is wholly unlikely that Japan, engaged in a long drawn-out war of her own in the Orient, would be concerned with the cessation of hostilities in Europe unless at the request of her Axis partner. Great Britain's answer to Japan has been given already. If it wants any emphasis it is found in the rapid reinforcement of British strength in the Far East, on land, on sea and in the air. That Japan is, in any sense, willing to act as Germany's agent in peace negotiations might imply that if she is unsuccessful she may deem it essential to complicate the situation by such aggression in the Orient as would conflict with British and American interests. It is against any such incursions that British safeguards are now being provided. In other words, far from seeking peace before the menace of Hitlerism is wiped out, the British Empire is prepared to defend its interests anywhere and everywhere throughout the world, and against any and all enemies.

ELUSIVE VITAMINS

A speaker before the scientific meeting of the British Pharmaceutical Society has come to the conclusion that there is great difficulty in laying down a model diet in actual terms of food, because of the variation in the constituents. For many years dieticians have been attempting to do just this without taking into consideration how the supply of vitamins may vary according to the kind of foodstuff in which they are believed to be contained. For instance, the speaker quoted says the same quantity of vitamin C may be in four ounces of apples of one variety as in 1½ cwt. of another, and the same quantity of vitamin A may be in two pints of milk as in two gallons. There is, in fact, no satisfactory method of adjusting averages. Dieticians, too, have not laid sufficient stress on the fact that there is more vitamin C in the skin of an orange than in its juice. As to potatoes, vitamins escape from those peeled, which means that they should be boiled in their skins. Vitamins thus are elusive so far as ordinary diets concerned. It must be the exception, not the rule, to eat either the skins of potatoes or the rinds of oranges, and the habitat of vitamins may well be the same in grape fruit.

One Canadian firm which imports a large amount of woolen cloth from Great Britain reports that, in the first sixteen months of the War, only $2,000 worth of goods, or one-seventh of 1 per cent of all the materials it brought from the United Kingdom was lost in transport. No better tribute could be paid to the efficiency of the convoy system.

RECOMMISSIONED

They poured derision on a Nation's fame,
Declared our Youth insipid and distraught,
With resolution sapped by love of ease,
Our Manhood feeble, and our Counsels naught.

They called Democracy a baneful creed,
The sport of greybeards senile and effete
And with insidious guile led half a world
Deluded into dreaming our defeat.

If we were slow to hear the march of men
Or see the clouds that heralded the storm,
If we were blind with blindness of good will,
Or mocked the voices clamoring reform.

Yet in this welter of destruction sore,
Youth is triumphant, and our coasts remain,
While half a world acclaims, through purge of fire,
A Nation that has found its soul again.

THE LOST DIARY (14)

The aftermath of Ypres can be told simply. The Germans, having taken a considerable bite out of the salient, now tried to roll up the flanks. The British shortened the line and held on. At Hill 60 the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry, who had landed in France in December and had been in action since January, fought in the Battle [illegible] courage and daring. They held out in open, exposed trenches on Bellewarde Ridge against repeated German attacks, until nearly all their officers and more than half of their effectives were gone. Once, twice and three times the Germans released chlorine gas towards the right-hand hinge of the salient. Between May 5 and May 8 the new thrust was at its height; but the German drive failed. Men were still superior to plans on paper. They always will be. In these actions, the Canadian artillery fired in full support; only being withdrawn finally from the salient on May 14. But of all this we knew little, as the Division had already been relieved.

For those who participated in it, the march back from Ypres beginning on May 4, 1915, was one of the most moving experiences of a lifetime. Imperial troops ran out of their billets in pouring rain to line the streets of shell-torn Ypres, now a tumbled heap of bricks. They threw their arms around the shoulders of the still dazed men who had fought at Kitchener's Woods at Langemarck, at St. Julien, and marched along with them in the pock-marked streets. There was cemented a friendship that was to last through the whole of the long campaign. Through Vlamertinghe and Reninghelst these scenes were repeated; and veterans will tell you that the road from Ypres seemed to them the road to heaven. After fourteen days in almost continuous action, the Canadians were leaving the furnace that tries a man's soul.

A serious reaction, however, was to set in. After the shock of battle had worn off, men were to awaken to the reality of their position. One in every third man was no longer with them. In the middle of felicitations from Corps, from Army, from England, from Canada, men stopped to search for their companions, only to find them missing. In addition to field casualties, the gas, which had extended back for a distance of nearly five miles before being finally dissipated, began to get in its work. Between 1,500 and 2,000 men who marched away from Ypres were considered sufficiently gassed to require hospitalization and were evacuated. For many individuals there was the uncertainty of not knowing whether a missing chum was dead, wounded or taken prisoner. The praise of a nation fell flat on their ears as these men searched in billet and barracks, trying to piece together some recollection of what had happened; some clearer conception of those who were left. On into billets around Bailleul, the Division marched for a ten-day rest. There, in the warm, Spring sun of France, they began once more to take up their individual lives. For once in their hands they had it to savor that which they had accepted without thought or question before—life.

One clear impression Canadians did take from the Second Battle of Ypres. That was the conviction that now they had met the Germans in open combat, and had beaten them. The green troops of Salisbury Plains had held their own beside famous Imperial Divisions in the field, yielding nothing, even earning their generous praise. For all its battle history to follow, the First Canadian Divison, and later the complete Canadian Corps, held to a sense of superiority over their foes that nothing could shake. Morale is a priceless possession. Later, the Division was to add to its fighting creed the further conviction that it would neither ask nor give quarter. They had been gassed, without respirators. They had seen their dead and dying lie thick on the field, while stretcher-bearers were being shot down in cold blood trying to reach the wounded. And they remembered. If there had been any doubts about that, Festubert settled them; and there the Canadians were brigaded with the Guards.

Somewhere between the march back from Ypres and re-entry into the line at Festubert, the Division received its first reinforcements. These men came from the Canadian Training Division at Shorncliffe and included, among others, the 30th Battalion, which joined the 3rd Brigade. Among them was a school chum of mine. As his story was typical of other poor fellows who came out at that time I will tell it here. The Brigade had moved into the Merville area, behind Festubert. I saw him at Indian Village marching up to the line for a scheduled attack that night. I pressed his hand warmly, and wished him luck. Within a few hours he was back at Indian Village with a light wound in the leg. One hour later he was killed by shell-fire as he lay on a stretcher outside the dressing station. He had sat in the same double-seat with me at school. War, to the individual, can be like that—bitter, cruel, ironic, taking always of the best. I feel comforted for having mentioned him here, anonymously, as it must still be. This was the man I wanted to [illegible]

The Observation Car

By THE EDITORIAL STAFF

Military Information

Little is overlooked by the censors at Vancouver, but we have discovered an item that apparently slipped past their eagle eyes. All army trucks in use on the Island now bear the prefix N.D. before numbers on the license plates. Obviously, N.D. stands for National Defence. Now fifth columnists and other spies will be able to identify army vehicles at a glance. Almost at any time we expect the censors to command the Department of National Defence to refrain from using the new plates. . . . A local drug store uses one of the smallest of the peewee series of automobiles to deliver goods. Plastered across the windshield are the words "No Riders." Since the tiny car is barely large enough to hold a full-grown man, perhaps the sign is meant for a joke. . . . An observant alderman pointed out at the last City Council meeting that a by-law required every committee to keep track of the number of meetings and attendance. The answers he received boiled down to "So what?" Most council committee meetings start out with thirty minutes' business, but last one and one-half hours. Some aldermen find a committee meeting a pleasant place to daydream in comfort. . . . Clem, the Fort Street poet, arrived at the club in a shiny new automobile and squeezed his bulk through the door. "You are putting on weight," a clubman commented. "Nonsense. It is this heavy coat." Clem chuckled. "I suppose you had to get rid of the old car because it did not fit?" the clubmate asked.—G.B.

Shifty

Thwarted in their furniture-moving inclinations at home, ladies who donated room furnishings to a downtown establishment recently are having a rumbling good time these days. Whenever two or more get together and find themselves at loose ends for divertisement, they happily hie themselves to the institution to which their chairs and chesterfields had been donated, and blissfully busy themselves shifting them from one corner of the room to another. So frequent and devastating have been their attacks, that the sound of a feminine voice will compel an innocent chair-warmer to spring smartly to his feet and depart speedily for regions unknown, leaving the "girls" to push and haul the cumbersome equipage by themselves. To date, even this hasn't deterred them from their favorite indoor sport.—H.E.M.

Co-operation Needed

Amateur boxing has enjoyed prosperous times and bad times in this city, but for some unknown reason it invariably happens that clubs organized here lack that grandest of all qualities for success—co-operation. Not that we have any fight to pick with the heads of our two splendid organizations—the Victoria Boys' Athletic and Hobby Club and the recently-organized Victoria Amateur Boxing Club—but it does seem a shame that they should stage bouts on the same night. We are certain that many of our fisticuffing fans (and they are numerous) would like to witness both shows, but such a thing is going to be impossible at present. We would like to suggest to those responsible that they "get together" and co-operate. Instead of presenting two programmes on one night. Under such circumstances everybody is going to suffer: the crowds are going to be divided; the boxers are not going to get the support they deserve, and the game will not improve under such conditions. If the boys from the respective clubs must fight the same night, why not stage inter-club cards. Then and only then, will the game get the boost it deserves.—S.T.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

(From The Daily Colonist of February 20, 1891)

Revelstoke News—W. A. Jouett arrived on the steamer Islander last evening, from Revelstoke. He says that the smelter will likely be "blown in" by the end of April. There are already 1,000 tons of ore at Kootenay Lake from the United Mine, owned by the Revelstoke Mining Company, which will be brought up as soon as the boats start, and a few are now on the spot. The weather has been fine and the river is not yet frozen over. Preparations are being made for a busy Spring and several transfers of mining property are looked for shortly.

Invited to Olympia—George T. Ulmer received an invitation last night from Governor Laughton, of Washington, endorsed by members of the Legislature, asking him to produce the celebrated play of "Col. Sellers" in Olympia, the capital of the state. The invitation was accepted, and Mr. Ulmer will go several hundred miles from his route to comply with the request.

Honor to Sherman—United States Consul Myers invites the American residents of Victoria who desire to pay their respects to the memory of the late General William T. Sherman, and all others who may see fit to be present, to meet in the hall of the Young Men's Christian Association on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

UNQUENCHABLE SPIRIT

Sir,—I have just received a letter from my brother in England, in which he describes an air raid over my old home town, a coastal resort in Devon. Two bombs only were dropped, one being a delayed action, and I thought it may be of interest to your readers to know what terrific damage just a couple of these devilish missiles can do.

He mentions the area affected, so well known to me, and it would about take in, say, start at Government Street, thence up Fort Street to Blanshard Street, thence to Johnson Street, and from there to Government Street again. There were several stores demolished and practically all windows smashed (including my old store); ten killed and many injured.

He states it was truly amazing to see what damage was done, but business as usual appears to be the order of the day. One placard stating "Moved from big premises to smaller ones, owing to Hitler our shop it littler."

That is just a little indication of the spirit prevailing. The old home folk take things in their stride with a smile and a joke.

That is the spirit Hitler cannot understand and which is ultimately going to beat him. I wonder if we are as thankful as we ought to be for the peace we enjoy in this favored land.

"THE MANNING IDEA"

Sir,—In this morning's Colonist, your editoral, "The Manning Idea," exactly expresses what has been in the minds of many who so deeply regret the death of our late chief forester, Mr. Manning.

In any proposed memorial the first thing necessary is to keep before the public the "objectives for which he labored with such personal courage and initiative."

To this end, your suggestion of "a Manning forest reserve, a timbered park or a tree nursery" seems appropriate, for Mr. Manning tirelessly warned that "the timber wealth of British Columbia must receive far more attention if it is to be preserved."

CANADA'S WAR EFFORT

Sir,—After listening to Mr. Bevin's speech and that of Mr. Brockington afterwards in which he stressed the importance of Canada following the lead of England in her war effort the thought occurred to me that most Canadians were willing to do their bit to the best of their ability, but that there were thousands who had no chance through no fault of their own.

The example of England should be carried out here as it was over there by finding men of executive ability to put the thousands of willing workers who are at present unemployed to work in order that they may earn money to loan back to the Government.

Canada should be able to find a few men of the Beaverbrook calibre, and who should know better where to find such men than the Prime Minister. Mr. Churchill knew where and how.

WOMEN AND THE WAR

Sir,—A radio appeal was made today to the women of Canada to do their utmost to win the war. Two ways only of doing this were suggested, one was to buy War Savings Certificates; the other to knit and go on knitting for our men.

But, sir, there are thousands of women in Canada whose means are so limited that they have no money at all for buying War Savings Certificates, women who anxiously await week-end or month-end for the wherewithal to buy the bare necessities of life for a growing family. And I mean bare necessities, wrung from a budget that it would be impossible to deplete further without jeopardizing the health of the family: for, even in wartime it is a mother's first duty to feed her family properly, and to see that they are adequately clad.

Then again there are thousands of women in this country, who, doing all their own work, raising a family, probably without the daily counsel and assistance of a husband on active service overseas—women actually have not the time to knit. Twenty-four hours cannot be stretched indefinitely and a woman must sleep during a few of them in order to keep fit for another day's work of keeping the home fires burning.

Is it then only women with money to spare, women with time to knit, women with leisure and surplus energy and appetites for bridge afternoons, concerts and dances who can contribute personally (apart from yielding their menfolk) to this crusade for democracy?

Sir, in your columns today I am thankful to see that another way does indeed exist, a very simple and direct way in which every Canadian housewife could and would contribute, namely, the saving of waste materials in the household, surplus fat, bottles, cans, paper, cardboard boxes—in fact all those things that even the poorest of us ordinarily throw away. The English housewife, we are told, now carefully sorts her garbage into different containers, and it is then collected by the city authorities. What can be done with such salvaged refuse one may well ask here in Victoria, where obviously no one wants to do anything with it.

The fact is however that something should be done at once in regard to this matter. Time is precious.

We women should insist that we be allowed to cope with the problem of waste, if we are to help win the war. Have not the Nazis openly declared that the Americas are easy prey because of the waste of materials owing to the high standard of democratic living? Are we, in Canada, not to heed this warning until it is too late? Are the German and Japanese housewives to be the only ones in the world to realize its import? Rather let us insist that our city authorities follow the example set by those in our harassed Mother Country in her hour of need.

S.P.C.A. DISCUSSED NUMEROUS QUESTIONS

At the meeting of the executive committee of the SPCA held on Tuesday evening, the inspector reported what was described as a most cruel treatment to a dumb animal. The matter will be gone into, with the prospect that prosecution may follow.

The subject of a shelter for animals should an air raid take place was raised. It was decided to investigate the matter and gather all the information possible before action should be taken. There was also brought up for discussion the subject of having a temporary shelter for stray dogs and cats until disposition could be made of these animals.

With the increase in population, it was decided to take occasion to advise people to see that their dogs are not allowed to wander about town. Owners will be advised to have dogs on the leash or inside their cars, with the windows in the latter cases left partly open. The society seeks to encourage owners of residences to encourage the presence of birds in the gardens, thus combating the insect pests.

A further call has been received for more drinking troughs for dogs, and the society is going to place them where needed.

IN OTHER WORDS

As a member of an amateur dramatic company had fallen ill, a substitute was sought at the last moment. He had only six words to say: "I see a sheet of flame," and he soon learned them.

When the night came, he was full of confidence until he was actually facing the audience. Then he lost his nerve.

"I flee a shate," he began; "I flee a sheet—I flay a shleet—I shay—oh, the blinking house is on fire!"

Importance Of Speech Is Emphasized

"The Relation Between Speech and Song" was the subject of the address given by Mrs. Wilfrid Ord at the monthly meeting of the Victoria Music Teachers' Association held yesterday morning in the Y.W.C.A. Building.

One point emphasized by the speaker was the musical quality of the speaking voice and it was a characteristic which should be cultivated as dialects and differences in pronounciation are merely personal traits. Speech is one of the most beautiful of the arts and most intimate means of expression, she said, adding that "the radio and sound film have made us conscious of the speaking voice and more attention should be paid to speech."

MORE STUDY NEEDED

"So many people are afraid of the elocution teacher because there is so much caricature of the art," said Mrs. Ord, "whereas speech should be simple and unaffected." Ever since the advent of printing it had been neglected and pushed into the background and Mrs. Ord pointed out the connection between speech and song and stated that the fame of a singer was gained by being skilled in the use of speech. Mr. Plunkett Greene achieved fame, for he had studied the use of speech in song. Instrumentalists, said the speaker, knew the value of a great deal of study, which should also be applied to the spoken word.

Mr. Reginald Cox moved the vote of thanks to Mrs. Ord and Miss Ethel James, the president, conducted the meeting and announced that a recital in aid of the Red Cross will be held on March 21 at Fletcher Bros.

THE RESOLUTION

Discontinuance of musical festivals and their educational value were discussed. The association went on record as deploring the lowered musical standards in the city owing to the discontinuance of the festival movement. It was considered that children were the chief losers.

The next meeting will be held on March 19, when John Kyle will be the speaker, his subject being "Art and Music in the Sixteenth Century," which will be illustrated by pianoforte selections by Miss Maquinna Daniels.

United Press Correspondent Says No Fear or Hysteria In England

Although everyone in England expects an invasion attempt and believes it will be pretty bad, no one worries about it, Brian A. Tobin, United Press correspondent, who has [illegible] an assignment in the United Kingdom, said yesterday.

"In the daytime Londoners carry on their normal routine. The blackouts are not pleasant, and the streets are deserted at nights, but the underground restaurants and dance halls are open and are always crowded. There is absolutely no fear or hysteria," he declared.

He said air raids were not nearly so bad as one would think. "It's the old story about getting used to anything," he remarked. He hadn't slept in air raid shelters, but remained in his hotel room. "The noise wasn't too bad—you get used to it. It was like Hallowe'en every night," he said.

Mr. Tobin went to England last September and spent five busy months in the thick of things over there. He was on the same ship as Claude Campbell, vice-principal of Victoria High School, on a trawler trip along the English coast; he visited the Canadian troops in various parts of England, and attended a press conference given by Harry Hopkins, President Roosevelt's personal envoy at the American Embassy. He also chatted with Lieutenant-General A. G. L. McNaughton several times.

Returning from England, he crossed the Atlantic on the liner Georgic to New York, calling en route at Bermuda.

Mr. Tobin is spending a few days' holidays here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Tobin, St. Andrews Street, and will leave shortly for Halifax, where he will open a new bureau for the United Press.

SLOWLY RETREATING

DEVDELJA, Yugoslavia (on the Albanian Frontier), Feb. 19 (AP). Greek sources reported today that the 11th Italian Army in the Skumbi Valley was slowly retreating after heavy fighting.

In the Devoli Valley the Greeks were said to have taken more than 100 prisoners and seized large quantities of war materials.

A thunderstorm prevented major operations, but the Greek situation was regarded as favorable since they managed to advance to positions on the north wing of the Central sector after repulsing Italian counter-attacks.

BRITISH COMMUNIQUE

ATHENS, Feb. 18 (AP). British Air Headquarters issued the following communique Wednesday:

"During the last few days the Royal Air Force has maintained a concentrated attack on enemy positions in the Tepeleni area in support of Greek forces.

"On Monday enemy troop concentrations and military camps in the villages of Kamshight and Dames, north of Tepeleni, and motor transport and military buildings at Beshicht and Caulisti were heavily bombed, but full observation of results was impossible owing to a ground haze. Several offensive fighter patrols also were carried out.

"Yesterday, despite unfavorable weather, military targets in the area southwest of Tepeleni were very successfully raided. The area was covered with low clouds, but our aircraft dived through them and carried out low level attacks, direct hits being scored on enemy troop concentrations and motor columns on roads.

"All our aircraft returned safely."

The time is Pacific Standard for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight. The figures for height serve to distinguish high water from low water. Where blanks occur in the table, the tide rises or falls continuously during two successive tidal periods without turning.

To find the depth of water on the sill at the Esquimalt Drydock at any tide, add 30 feet to the height of high water as above given.

RALLYING FOR JOINT ADVANCE

before the British troops north of the lake can "clasp hands" with the "patriots" to the south.

To the south, more British troops are moving into Ethiopia from Kenya and may be able to join in the attack on Addis Ababa, informed quarters said. On the way, this force too may be able to pick up many Ethiopians willing to fight.

A thousand miles south of Lake Tana in Italian Somaliland, reports indicated another bitter battle was developing in the region of Gelib on the Juba River, north of the British-captured port of Chisimaio.

ATTACK REPULSED

After waves of dive-bombers had attacked Italians holding Gelib on the east bank of the stream, a communique from Nairobi South African headquarters, said an Italian counter-attack had been repulsed. Forty Italians were left dead, the announcement said.

The South Africans said they are overcoming their difficulties in hauling water and supplies to the battlefront over extremely difficult country and increasing their pressure.

In the Lake Tana region the British authorities said the plight of the Italians was illustrated by their reports that a number of Fascist outlying posts have been surrounded by natives for several weeks.

LOSING CONTROL

In a number of cases, it was said the Italian Command has been reduced to supplying the garrisons by airplane, and is rapidly losing control of the whole region.

Elsewhere in African theatres only bombing at Cherem in Eritrea and German air attacks on Bengasi in North Africa were reported. British officials said two German planes were shot down and others damaged at Bengasi.

Raids on Italy's Dodecanese Island airdromes for the ninth consecutive night were staged by the R.A.F.

ROWELL-SIROIS REPORT

Tracing the historic developments in Canada, dealing at length with the British North America Act and taking as the subject of his address "The Rowell-Sirois Report," Capt. Elmore Philpott referred to the recent conference in Ottawa as "a dismal failure" As a result of the tragedy of its collapse, a certain amount of good was contained in the fact that "in two days the people of Canada got the idea that we must have some sort of changes in constitutional relationships." Capt Philpott said, adding that the way to a better government was by means of less complicated relationships to avoid the "everlasting political log-rolling that never accomplishes anything. Mrs D. L. MacLaurin expressed the thanks of the delegates to Capt. Philpott

DOLLS' EXHIBITION

According to the report of Mrs H. M. Hall, corresponding secretary, the two most important undertakings of the year had been the sponsoring the Royal Dolls' Exhibition at the Hudson's Bay Company store in aid of the refugee fund, at which the sum of $2 110 was raised, and the jam-making project by which over 3,000 pounds were made and are now being held in cartons each containing twelve four-pound tins, which have been shipped to England for victims of bombed areas Fourteen pounds of blackberry jelly was sent to the sick bay of the Navy hospital at Esquimalt and 100 pounds of jam to the Welfare Agency to be distributed amongst soldiers' independents.

The council has undertaken entire charge for the duration of the war of the two booths, one in the Hudson's Bay store and the other in David Spencer, Limited, for the sale of War Savings Stamps Thirty-seven members with Mrs H S Hurn as major and Mesdames Fleming, Blair Reid, Crane and T H Johns as captains, helped in canvassing for funds for the arena.

"Galloping teas," the latest money-raising venture which has caught the imagination of bridge players and society in [illegible] of Mrs. E. W. Hamber, a number of local hostesses have promised their co-operation in arranging parties in the series. The funds thus collected will go towards the purchase of woolen comforts for the men of the mine sweepers and trawlers. On Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. J. Sutherland Brown, Bowker Place, was hostess at a party at her home when her guests were Mrs. R. H. B. Ker, Mrs. F. A. Pearce, Miss Laura Magrath, Mrs. Charles E. Wilson, Mrs. W. B. Holms, Mrs. Gerald H. May, Mrs. C. T. Beard and Mrs. C. F. Armstrong. Each of the eight guests promised to continue the teas, each inviting seven guests, and these, in turn, invite a smaller number until, by means of this "chain" of social gatherings, the fund will be increased by a large amount. In various parts of Canada, notably in Kingston, Ont., and in Vancouver, the "chain" entertainments have been most successful, and the Victoria women interested particularly in the Mine Sweepers and Trawlers' Fund are hopeful that the chain will remain unbroken, and a valuable contribution thus made on behalf of the men engaged in hazardous duties at sea. It is hoped to raise a fund sufficiently large to be able to send contributions also to the Halifax District Utility Centre for the Royal Canadian Navy and Royal Navy ships stationed there. Yesterday afternoon Mrs. R. H. B. Ker carried on the chain of parties by inviting to her house Mrs. Russell Ker, Mrs. R. W. Braide, Mrs. Adrian Hope, Mrs. E. E. Henderson, Miss Gladys Irving, Mrs. Morton Patterson and Mrs. Rupert Guthrie. Mrs. A. E. Godfrey's guests at the party which she gave at her home on Beach Drive were Mrs. C. L. Trecarten, Mrs. C. R. Slemon, Mrs. E. Day, Mrs. Arthur Buckle and Mrs. J. McLennan.

Suit Inspired by Air Force

YOU needn't wait for Spring to wear this trim feminine version of the Air Corps regalia, created by Sportowne, and wearable right now for a mid-season pick-up under your fur or cloth coat. It is khaki colored, of a fine box-weave worsted with the new torso-length jacket and an eight-gore skirt. The jacket, which resembles an officer's tunic, is complete with official emblems on its simulated pockets. The emblems are repeated on the translucent plastic buttons and on the leather belt. Worn with it are a classic tailored silk shirt and a hat that suggests a campaign hat, though it is not strictly military.

Women Share Heavy Task of Furthering Progress of Church

Columbia Diocesan W.A. Now in Session Here—$6,643 Raised During Past Year—Special Addresses Heard at Yesterday's Meeting

ADDRESSES by Rt. Rev. L. R. Sherman, Bishop of Calgary, and Rev. K. L. Sandercock, on "Indian Residential Schools," were highlights in yesterday's session of the thirty-seventh annual meeting of the Columbia Diocesan Board of the Anglican Woman's Auxiliary, now being held at the Shrine Hall, View Street, the president, Mrs. F. J. Brimer, in the chair.

In her address, Mrs. Brimer reminded the members that despite the many and varied calls for assistance as result of war conditions, the work of the church should not be neglected.

The following resolution was endorsed: "Whereas there is neither Bible reading nor religious education in the public schools of this province, this annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of British Columbia urges that a vigorous campaign be initiated by the Anglican Church so as to insure some Governmental action in the matter."

YEAR'S WORK

The recording secretary, Mrs. G. M. Prentice, reported a total membership of 3,010 women. During the year the names of the late Mrs. Colin Cummins and Mrs. Belson had been placed in the Book of Remembrance. Mrs. F. J. Laughlin, corresponding secretary, reported seven life memberships given during the year. Mrs. J. Nellans, Dorcas secretary, told of clothing sent to children in Indian schools, hospital work done, Christmas cheer provided, twenty-seven bales of clothing sent to the Prairie Provinces, including 3,750 pounds of freight, consisting of new and used clothing.

Mrs. H. Barnett reported increasing interest in the prayer partner department. Mrs. Philp reported books sent to the hospital ship libraries of the Columbia Coast Mission in addition to three and one-half tons of magazines.

MUST CARRY ON

The president emphasized the point that in future the church in Canada must make every effort to carry on the work which has hitherto been shouldered by the church in England. Canadian missionaries had had to be recalled and property in Japan turned over to the Japanese church, but it was a matter of thankfulness that the Church of England still has a Japanese bishop in Japan. The Indian population in Canada was increasing, the members were told, and clothing needed for 1,410 children, the supply being partly the responsibility of the W.A. In the Columbia diocese two new boats have been supplied in Quatsino Sound and the Gulf Islands. A total sum of $5,000 had been spent in the diocese.

Mrs. R. J. Pierce read the Extra Cents secretary's report; Mrs. T. J. Greenway, the church embroidery guild; thank-offering Miss Duncan, whose report showed an increase over last year, the amount being the largest in ten years.

FINANCIAL REPORT

Mrs. A. A. Beneough, the treasurer, reported receipts amounting to $6,643.56, which together with the bank balance carried forward, made a total of $8,139.22. The total disbursments amounted to $6,458.05, leaving a balance of $1,680.17. The pledge had been more than met. Three bursaries had been given to the Anglican Theological College. The Little Helpers had taken a large part in helping the pledge fund.

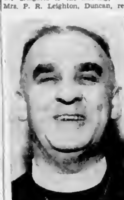

Mrs. Lytton reported a decrease in cases and Mrs. F. Goodwin, secretary for the girls' and candidates' department, reported last year's conference the largest ever held. Mrs. Hughes read the report of the girls' camp at Glinz Lake, and the Life Membership Association report was read by Lady Lake in place of Deaconess Simcox, who is ill.

WORK AMONG INDIANS

Teachers, nurses and priests of God are being sent into the North country as result of the instruction given in the Indian residential school maintained by the Church of England in Canada, said Rev. K. L. Sandercock, in the course of his address on his work in Indian residential schools in the Diocese of Athabaska. Mr. Sandercock is now working in the Gulf Islands. He described the growth of Indian school work from the days when a small band of missionaries foresaw the possibilities of training and teaching the natives, until, finally, the Government took over the schools and gave annual grants, which partly support the schools. He spoke of the difficulties in the early days of persuading the Indians to allow their children to be taught, but the thought of food and clothing in a district when starvation was near appealed to them. Definite results had been achieved, he said, and the Indian pupils were graduating with sufficient knowledge to support themselves.

GUESTS WELCOMED

Mrs. C. deV. Schofield welcomed the delegates to the meeting, and Mrs. P. R. Leighton, Duncan, responded. Miss Andrews and Miss May, who were missionaries in Japan for a number of years, and Mr. Bird, a life member of Saskatchewan W.A.; Mrs. Donalds, a life member from Nova Scotia, and other members from distant parts were given a special welcome.

BISHOP SHERMAN

The importance of united effort was emphasized by Bishop Sherman, who pointed out that he had found that the W.A. throughout the Dominion was prepared and willing to fall in behind the effort to attain the objective of $330,000, which must be raised in Canada to carry on the work of the church.

Prior to the business session, the members of the W.A. attended the celebration of Holy Communion in the Cathedral. Bishop Sexton was the celebrant, assisted by Dean Elliott, Archdeacon Nunns, Rev. Alan Greene, Rev. Fred Comley, Rev. F. Springborn and Rev. E. Linfoot.

The W.A. meeting continues today, a public missionary meeting to be held tonight at 7.45 o'clock, when Archdeacon W. R. Devenish will speak on "India."

CHURCH TEA

A successful tea was held at Belmont United Church recently under the convenership of Mrs. Butler, Mrs. Parfitt and Mrs. Benson. Presiding at the tea urns were Mrs. Knight and Mrs. Strawford, the table being covered with a lace cloth and centred with a silver basket of flowers. Mrs. Hardie was in charge of the home cooking stall, and Miss Barloot entertained with pianoforte solos.

GREAT FILM EPIC NOW AT CAPITOL

"Gone With the Wind" Stars Clark Gable, Vivien Leigh and Leslie Howard

[illegible] opens today at the Capitol Theatre, is the most faithful filmization of a novel the screen has ever attempted. Every word, character and event in Margaret Mitchell's dramatic story lives on the screen. It contains undoubtedly the most beautiful and breath-taking Technicolor photography conceivable.

Clark Gable is naturally a perfect Rhett Butler. That much was to be expected and it's the greatest acting job he's ever done. Vivien Leigh is wholly Scarlett. Leslie Howard is outstanding and Olivia de Havilland surpasses anything she's ever done.

Those are the stars, for the others, one phrase will cover their performance — ideal casting and brilliant acting. Among the featured players who shine brilliantly are Thomas Mitchell, Hattie McDaniel, Barbara O'Neil, Ona Munson, Laura Hope Crews, Carroll Nye, Harry Davenport, Alicia Rhett, Rand Brooks, Evelyn Keyes, Ann Rutherford, Butterfly McQueen, Oscar Polk, Victor Jory, Eddie Anderson, Fred Crane, George Reeves, Jane Darwell and Everett Brown.

AMUSEMENTS

On the Screen

Atlas—Kay Kyser in "You'll Find Out."

Cadet—"The Doctor Takes a Wife," with Loretta Young.

Capitol—Clark Gable in "Gone With the Wind."

Dominion—"[illegible] Was a Lady," with Ann Sothern.

Oak Bay—Olivia de Havilland in "My Love Came Back."

Plaza—"Meet the Wildcat," with Margaret Lindsay.

Rio — Charles Starrett in "South of Arizona."

York—Edmund Gwenn in "An Englishman's Home."

TIMELY PICTURE ON YORK SCREEN

"An Englishman's Home" Is Graphic Tale of Modern Warfare in the Old Land

"An Englishman's Home" opens today at the York Theatre. The film, with Edmund Gwenn and Mary Maguire in the major roles is said to be a ripped-from-the-headlines story of an Empire at bay, of a London which is the target of enemy planes, of parachuting "suicide squads," of spies who entrench themselves in the very hearts of the people they plan to destroy.

Timely and spectacular, "An Englishman's Home" is the story of a placid, peace-loving Englishman to whom war is a remote and distant thing. He does not want to so much as talk of the possibility of its occurrence, until suddenly war breaks in upon him in all its horror.

LORETTA YOUNG IN CADET OFFERING

"The Doctor Takes a Wife," Co-Stars Melvyn Douglas—Hilarity Runs Rampant

Torrid temperature . . . embarrassing pulse . . . terrific blood pressure . . . it's a plain case of heart trouble! And it isn't until "The Doctor Takes a Wife" that he really knows what's wrong with himself!

And why not? Lovely Loretta Young in her first all-comedy role, is obviously just what the doctor ordered, even though the doctor in the case most emphatically disagrees! So, for that matter, does Miss Young and that's the hectic new comedy which comes to the Cadet Theatre today.

"The Doctor Takes a Wife," with Loretta Young and Ray Milland starred, is the hilarious, happy account of a girl who writes books of praise of spinsterhood and a doctor who believes all women are . . . well, not poison perhaps, but fairly close to it. In order to continue their careers, this perfectly matched pair of haters are forced by circumstances beyond their control into pretending domestic felicity. They bill and coo in public, they battle and clash in private.

DOMINION THEATRE That fast-talking wisecracking, man-challenging showgirl, "Maisie," finally "crashes" society in her latest adventures which takes place in "Maisie Was a Lady," ending today at the Dominion Theatre. But it's via the "back door," for Ann Sothern's latest "Maisie" role casts her as a maid in the home of inebriate playboy Lew Ayres.

KAY KYSER STARS AT ATLAS TODAY

"You'll Find Out" Is a Blood-Curdling Mystery Yarn With Tuneful Accompaniment

Kay Kyser's film, "You'll Find Out," which opens today at the Atlas Theatre, is delightful and different, being a blood-curdling mystery yarn with tune-tingling accompaniment.

The shuddersome portions are provided by those thorough-going villians, Peter Lorre, Boris Karloff and Bela Lugosi, who are seen as three diabolical individuals engaged in the reprehensible task of trying to murder a charming young lady so they can make a lot of money.

Against this sinister scheme and its appropriate background of a gloomy old mansion stuffed with savage trophies and trick passageways, is laid the tuneful story of Kay Kyser, a syncopating sleuth who comes to the mansion with his band to play for the heroine's birthday party and winds up unravelling the fiendish machinations of the three bad men.

ADDS NEW TRICKS TO COMIC ANTICS

Allen Jenkins Scores in "Meet the Wildcat," Opening Today on Plaza Screen

Allan Jenkins in his latest screen appearance has the opportunity to add several new twists to his familiar comedy tricks. As the bewildered taxi-driver in "Meet the Wildcat," Universal action drama, which opens today at Plaza Theatre, he turns sleuth and helps Ralph Bellamy and Margaret Lindsay solve the mystery of stolen art treasures in Mexico City.

Playing the comedy lead in the gay farce, Jenkins helps contribute laughter by getting so mixed up in tangled clues he almost convicts himself of robbery. Always eager to find versatility in his roles, Jenkins says that he has played everything from bearded foreigners to tailored Beau Brummel during his career as an actor.

OAK BAY BOOKS MUSICAL COMEDY

"My Love Came Back" Has Olivia de Havilland and Jeffrey Lynn In Leading Roles

Beginning today the Oak Bay Theatre will show "My Love Came Back," Warner Bros.' gay, romantic, musical comedy. The film stars Olivia de Havilland and Jeffrey Lynn, two of Hollywood's youngest and best-liked players.

In "My Love Came Back" these attractive personalities portray young people on their way up in the world. The girl is a brilliant music student who must rely on the benefits of a scholarship "donated" by an elderly admirer so that she may further her promising career as a concert violinist. The boy is a rising young executive in the elderly admirer's firm, and is saddened when he believes the worst about the "May and December" affair between his employer and the girl he loves.

COWBOY STAR HAS TWO-FISTED ROLE

Charles Starrett Comes to Grips With Cattle Rustlers in "South of Arizona"

The detection or prevention of cattle rustling, murder and other frontier villainies keep two-fisted Charles Starrett hopping in Columbia's "South of Arizona," which opens today at the Rio Theatre. Iris Meredith is again the charming and talented leading lady for the popular hard-riding cowboy star and the Sons of the Pioneers supply three tuneful new ballads of the old West.

Briefly, "South of Arizona" concerns a young cowpuncher, trying to rid a harassed country of cattle rustlers, who finds the slain body of a young ranger. The young puncher, played by Charles Starrett, attempts to solve the murder, and to protect the young sister of the ranger, charmingly played by winsome Miss Meredith.

Five Years for Fifteen Dollars

WINNIPEG, Feb 18 (CP).—William Petrowski, twenty-one, today was sentenced to five years in penitentiary after pleading guilty to two hold-up charges and one attempted hold-up. Petrowski was arrested on Monday in connection with the mid-January robbery of a woman and a taxi driver and the attempted robbery of another man. The hold-ups netted less than $15.

Speaking at Prince Rupert, Premier Mentions "September, 1942"

"For twenty-five years you have been good enough to place confidence in me as your representative. Sometime before September, 1942, I shall be looking for another nomination by the Liberal party, and will again submit myself to the judgment of the people of this constituency for another term of office. There are many important problems ahead and I want the opportunity and time to bring them to fruition," Premier T. D. Pattullo declared before a meeting of his constituents in Prince Rupert yesterday.

A copy of the text of the Premier's address released here showed that this was the only reference to the prospects of a Provincial general election. September, 1942, would be the limit of the present administration's current term.

OBJECTION VOICED

Elsewhere in his address the Premier recited British Columbia's objections to Plan 1 under the Sirois Commission's report, and reiterated that the Province was not disposed to accept financial control from the East in the guise of a wartime emergency measure. British Columbia's full co-operation was offered to the Dominion in the war, even to the extent of conscription of both wealth and man power, the Premier declared at another point.

Discussing the financial aspects of the Commission's report, as to their effect on British Columbia, Premier Pattullo said:

"The Government of British Columbia took the ground that the carrying into effect of the plan would be injurious both to British Columbia and to the Dominion of Canada. There is hardly a phase of our economic or social life that does not sooner or later get down to dollars and cents. The plan of the Commission proposes to take away from the Provinces the income tax, both personal and corporate, and succession duties, to be imposed exclusively by the Dominion.

BASED ON INCOME

"To understand the situation we must remember that our whole Governmental Provincial economy has been built up upon the basis of securing revenue from the income tax. This tax was first imposed in British Columbia in 1876, and today represents more than one-third of our total income. Suddenly we are asked to change our whole economy, and to surrender this flexible and elastic tax upon which we have been so dependent, and through the operation of which we can most effectively meet any emergency. Such a proposal is both unreasonable and unjust.

"Careful study by myself personally, by my colleagues in the Government and by expert authority in our service clearly indicates that the main recommendations of the report, known as Plan 1, would be very injurious to the development, welfare and prosperity of our Province," Premier Pattullo said.

VICTORIAN THANKED BY GEN. DE GAULLE

Mrs. Madeleine MacKay, Jersey Farm Dairy, has received from the headquarters of General de Gaulle a letter of appreciation for good wishes extended on the part of Mrs. MacKay for the success of the French loyalists in their fight against the German aggressors, and also thanking her for remembrances which she had forwarded to the loyal French party.

Mrs. MacKay is a native of Normandy, France, and her family were severe sufferers in the last war against Germany. In her letter to General de Gaulle, she expressed the hope that things would soon be altered as far as France's position was concerned. The writer of the reply to her acting for General de Gaulle stated that there would be no let up in the efforts until France was restored to her former position.

SONG OF THE GERMANS

Our Fuehrer first acquired the Czechs;
They hang like chains about our necks.
Our Fuehrer then destroyed the Poles;
May God have mercy on our souls!
Our Fuehrer next annexed the Danes
And he is still collecting chains
Our Fuehrer has subdued the Dutch;
But this does not delight us much
We have the Belgians, too; but then,
We have the hate of God and men
The French have had to take defeat.
But we have not enough to eat.
He can make Europe, if he please,
A continent of refugees:
But still with every forward stride,
He digs our grave more deep and wide.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. Harmful poisons go into the body, and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.

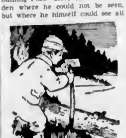

A mere bowel movement doesn't always get at the cause. You need something that works on the liver as well. It takes those good old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Harmless and gentle, they make the bile flow freely. They do the work of calomel but have no calomel or mercury in them. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name! Stubbornly refuse anything else. 10c.

Little Stories for Bedtime

The Angry Trapper

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

Jerry Muskrat had about decided that Farmer Brown's Boy wasn't coming back when he heard footsteps and a moment later Farmer Brown's Boy appeared coming down the Laughing Brook toward the Smiling Pool. Jerry remained hidden where he could not be seen, but where he himself could see all that went on around the Smiling Pool.

The Top of the Stick Was Split and in This He Slipped a Piece of Paper

In one hand Farmer Brown's Boy carried a bunch of things that clanked as he walked. Jerry knew what they were. He would know those things as far as he could see them. They were steel traps. Jerry scowled as he saw them. The sound of them hitting together sent little cold shivers over him. They were dreadful things, even more dreadful than terrible guns. There was nothing to fear from the latter save when they were in the hands of hunters, and anyone with his wits about him ought to be able to see a hunter in time to seek safety.

But these dreadful traps were left hidden in the very places where a fellow had the right to feel safest, ready to seize him in cruel steel jaws and hold him to suffer pain and dreadful fright for hours and hours, sometimes for days. Jerry could think of nothing so dreadful as those steel traps, and so he shivered at the sight of them.

Farmer Brown's Boy threw the traps down on the bank of the Smiling Pool. His usually sunny face was clouded. From his pocket he took a piece of paper and pencil. Then he sat down and began to write. When he had finished he went over to Jerry's favorite log and thrust a stick in the bank just above it. The top of the stick was split, and in this he slipped the piece of paper. Then he went back, gathered up the traps, slung them over his shoulder and tramped off in the direction of home.

All the rest of that day Jerry kept an eye on that piece of paper at the end of his favorite old log. It puzzled him. He didn't go near it. He didn't dare to. He was suspicious of it. It might be some new kind of a trap. Jerry was very unhappy. Early the next morning Jerry heard someone coming down the Laughing Brook. He promptly hid where he could watch. In a few minutes the stranger whom he had one time thought his friend appeared, and it was plain to be seen that he was very angry. He was muttering as he strode along. Almost at once he saw the piece of paper left by Farmer Brown's boy. He strode over to it, picked it up, and read it. This is what was on it.

"No trapping or hunting is allowed on this property. You, whoever you are, can get your traps at Farmer Brown's house."

The trapper turned and shook his fist in the direction of Farmer Brown's. Then, still muttering, he walked away hurriedly, but not in the direction of Farmer Brown's. Jerry didn't understand it at all, but for some unknown reason he felt better.

Now I'm back on the job again! I've just finished a cooks' tour ... asked 100 cooks to slip me the secret of perfect cake frosting—and every last cook whispered: "Eagle Brand!". So since they're awarding Eagle Brand the Moo-bel Prize, here's the prize recipe:

MAGIC CHOCOLATE FROSTING

2 squares unsweetened chocolate — 1 tablespoon water

FATAL CRASH KILLS THREE

Two Pilots and Radio Operator Lose Lives on Training Flight

ST HUBERT, Que., Feb. 19 (CP) — Three airmen were injured fatally today when a Lockheed aircraft—described officially as a training plane — crashed and burst into flames at the St. Hubert Airport, fifteen miles from Montreal.

Pilot Christopher George, thirty-seven, New York, and Radio Operator Sherman Hugh McCaughan, thirty-five, St. Hubert, were killed instantly. A second pilot, Leigh Allyn Jackson, twenty-three, Glendale, Calif., died in hospital at Montreal several hours after the crash.

McCaughan, apparently trapped inside the ship, was burned in the wreckage. The two American airmen were thrown clear as the plane crashed.

Wreckage was scattered over the snow-packed field for about 150 feet. After the fire burned out, nothing but twisted metal remained of the big plane.

Officials, who said the aircraft was not a Royal Canadian Air Force plane, said the crash occurred about 4 o'clock this afternoon when the craft was taken off on a routine training flight.

Officials did not say immediately whether an investigation was intended.

Transferred U.S. Destroyer Will Be Known as H.M.C.S. Hamilton

OTTAWA, Feb. 18 (CP). — Retention of the name H.M.C.S. Hamilton for the former United States destroyer recently acquired by the Royal Canadian Navy, was announced tonight by Naval Service headquarters.

Previously it had been decided to name the destroyer—one of fifty transferred to Great Britain by the United States in exchange for Western Hemisphere bases — the H.M.C.S. Kootenay.

Naval headquarters said that "since the name 'Hamilton' is borne by towns in Canada and the United States as well as Bermuda, it has been decided to retain the name originally allocated to this destroyer in her transfer to the British Commonwealth."

Acquisition of H.M.C.S. Hamilton, announced by Navy Minister Macdonald on January 24, brought Canada's destroyer strength to thirteen. It was the seventh overage United States destroyer acquired by Great Britain to be transferred to Canada.

Decision to retain the name H.M.C.S. Hamilton marked the first time Royal Canadian Navy has deviated from the practice of naming the former American destroyers after rivers common both to the United States and Canada.

Member Will Ask Government About Captured Vessel

OTTAWA, Feb. 19 (CP). — Tom Reid (Lib., New Westminster) has given notice in The Votes and Proceedings of the Commons that he will ask the Government about disposition of the captured German merchantman Weser.

He wants to know what Canadian company or Government department took over the vessel after the capture and arrival in British Columbia ports, whether she was given a complete examination as to her seaworthy conditions, and to what extent, if any, engines, machinery or hull were found to be damaged.

PRODUCTION OF PLANES RISING

Thousand Machines Delivered in January—Year's Output May Be 18,050

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19 (AP).—William S. Knudsen, director of the Office of Production Management, said today that during January 1,038 airplanes were delivered by United States manufacturers, of which 957 went to the United States Army and Navy and to the British forces.

Knudsen told a press conference that he expected the rate of production to "pick up a little" next Summer.

He said that an airplane output of 18,050 may be expected this year.

Knudsen also stated that the O.P.M. had approved an experimental contract with the Ford Motor Company for construction of plane parts.

Sidney Hillman, associate director of O.P.M., gave his approval of the contract, Knudsen said.

Flyer Sustained Slight Injuries When Plane Fell

TORONTO, Feb. 18 (CP) — L.A.C. O. B. Lefurgey, Prince Edward Island, suffered slight injuries when the training plane he was ferrying from Windsor, Ont., to Ottawa, crashed near Campbellville, Ont., last night. Five other planes in the formation accompanying Lefurgey's machine were also forced down by bad weather over Western Ontario, but they all made safe landings.

Lefurgey's machine was only slightly damaged. Three of the planes landed safely at the Toronto Island airport in the dark. A fourth reached Malton airport, outside Toronto, and the fifth landed in a field south of Guelph.

NO IDENTITY ESTABLISHED

New Forms Issued to Seamen Do Not Prove Their Citizenship

Canadian coastwise seamen plying local waters are in a bit of a plight, as a result of one of their most cherished privileges being more or less proscribed for some time now. When the United States Government made it necessary for all Canadians entering the United States to possess passports, for months seamen on Canadian vessels labored under certain hardships when their ships touched at United States ports. Among other things, they were not allowed ashore, no provision having been made by the Dominion Government to register and supply them with identification cards of any kind.

This condition prevailed for several months. Naturally, there was a lot of complaining on the part of Canadian seamen, who had always been privileged to spend off-watch hours ashore in the ports their ships happened to be in. To remedy the situation, Vancouver shipping men prepared a temporary certificate of citizenship after conferring with Canadian and United States immigration authorities. This temporary certificate, signed by Canadian immigration men, who attested to the nationality of the holder, satisfied the United States officials when shown at United States ports and was honored without question. The problem appeared to be solved.

ANOTHER FORM

Some months ago, however, the Canadian Department of Transport evolved what it called an "Identity Certificate." It was to be issued by collectors of customs and shipping masters. This "Identity Certificate" the United States immigration men have refused to acknowledge, because it has nothing to prove concerning the holder's citizenship, only that he is a seaman.

A few of the "Identity Certificates" have been issued at Vancouver, but have not been recognized by immigration officials at Puget Sound ports, while the temporary form which the Vancouver shipping men formulated is still recognized and their holders have no trouble. No new Government forms have been issued locally as yet by Captain George Kirkendale, who has been instructed to register seamen here, because of the refusal of the United States immigration officers to pass the men from Vancouver. In the meantime, British Columbia shipping interests are endeavoring to get the matter straightened out through representations to Ottawa.

While the temporary form which has been acceptable to the United States immigration officials is a very simple document, the form issued by the Department of Transport is a somewhat complicated affair. It requires three copies of particulars concerning the seaman holder, which means considerable fingerprinting and clerical work, while the clause which is supposed to establish citizenship only calls for date and place of birth, it being obvious that, knowing only of the seaman's service, a shipping master hardly feels justified in witnessing the statement as to citizenship.

A SUGGESTION

Captain Kirkendale believes that the department of the Government which is in the best position to know what a sailor's citizenship is should sign the clause establishing the man's nationality, while another section attesting to the man's status as a seaman should be added and this could be witnessed by the shipping master if necessary.

OTTAWA, Feb. 18 (CP). — Naval Service headquarters said today that two members of the Royal Canadian Navy honored by mention in dispatches for their good work in an attack on an enemy submarine, were from Toronto and Peterborough, Ont.

MONTREAL, Feb. 19 (CP).—Canadian National Railways announced today the awarding of a contract for 100 forty-ton refrigerator cars to the Transcona shops of the C.N.R. at Winnipeg.

An order for 150 fifty-ton ballast cars and 125 eighty-ton ore cars has been awarded to the National Steel Car Corporation in Hamilton.

The Eastern Car Company, of New Glasgow, N.S., has been awarded a contract to build 250 seventy-ton hopper cars, while a contract for 200 fifty-ton flat cars has been awarded the Canadian Car & Foundry, Limited, Montreal.

NEW WESTMINSTER, Feb. 18 (CP).—Fraser Mills took a one-game lead over Nanaimo Clippers in the finals for the Inter-City Hockey League championship by defeating the Nanaimo team, 8-2, here last night. The first game of the best-of-five series, played at Nanaimo last Saturday night, resulted in a 3-3 overtime tie.

J. Neilson, speedy Fraser Mills winger, led the New Westminster club's attack, collecting two of their three goals with Hogarth netting the other. Doug Martinson and McPherson did the scoring for Nanaimo.

"And what do you charge for your rooms?" he asked.

"That being the case, the price is five dollars down," replied the landlady, who had had experience.

Fugitive on a Dude Ranch

CHAPTER XXII

"How're you, Chalk?" Nancy heard Ike Skittles greet the sheriff. "Hain't seed you for a month o' Sundays. Whose hoss has been stole naow?"

The sheriff returned seriously. "Hoss stealin' is plum out o' style since automobiles got so common. You know most o' the rustlin' now-[illegible] 'tain't hoss thieves nor rustlers nor bandits I'm a-huntin' t'day, Ike. Few days ago I got me a tel'gram from a William F. Weller to arrest Donald Sturgis if I seen him. I hadn't seen nobody o' that name; ain't seen him yet, so I wired this Weller, 'way back east, to describe the jigger.

"So happened I catched a ride over to Dagger Wash late las' night and I dropped into the tel'gram office, a-catchin' a wire afore 'twas phoned me to Jimtown. I've got that message now, 'cause I never can remember one o' them descriptions longer'n a minute . . . Gimme a chew o' tobacco, Ike?"

Nancy had stopped thinking of her own predicament. She opened her door a crack; the sheriff's back was toward her; the edge of a yellow envelope was peeping out of his left hip pocket.

Sheriff Chalk Crowder bit a generous chunk out of Ike's plug and continued. "This tel'gram still didn't tell me why Mr. Weller wanted Donald Sturgis picked up. Jus' a jiffy an'—"

Chalk Crowder had reached around to his left hip pocket, but his hand came away empty. He made a thorough search of all his pockets before he muttered blankly: "That's daggoned funny . . . That envelope must ha' slipped up outa my pocket while I was ridin'."

"Things does work up outa hip pockets when you're bumpin' the saddle cantle," said Ike dryly.

The old cook could not have avoided seeing the slim figure that darted out of the hired girl's room and deftly plucked the telegram from the sheriff's pocket.

Closing her door, which for an instant had been wide open, Nancy turned and looked through her window directly into the eyes of Smoothie Dick Barclay. In that breathless moment she observed a pronounced cast in the fellow's left eye and a sardonic smile overspread his rather pale face. Oddly enough, she noticed too the man's watch fob dangling on its little strap from his trousers' watch pocket, and she thought, "What a peculiarly shaped fob . . . Oh! It's broken. Half of it's missing."

Apparently the man had returned to his car to get his new buckskin gauntlets, for without a word to the girl, he picked up the gloves and with a peculiarly catlike tread walked back to the stable where Sol Perriwell was waiting with saddled horses.

Motionless at her window, Nancy saw the sheriff plodding slowly to the blacksmith shop where Cinders Malloy Sturgis and two saddle-sore young guests were working with the T Slash flivver.

"Mornin', fellers?" greeted Chalk Crowder. "You boys ain't seen nor heard tell of nobody name of Donald Sturgis?"

The two sunburned youths had not. Cinders debated a moment before he said what Nancy was mentally telegraphing him to say: "No."

"Ain't seen nobody o' that name, Chalk," called Sol Perriwell. "We'll head out up the crick this-a-way, Mr Barcley."

Tremendously relieved, Nancy stepped into the kitchen and faced Ike Skittles. His eyes held a twinkle. He said: "It's jake with me, li'le girl. I never asks a lady the whys nor the wherefores of anything she does. I'm a graveyard, if you savvy what I mean."

Nancy lifted a stove lid and thrust the yellow envelope into the blazing fire. "I do savvy, Ike, and I thank you."

As Sheriff Crowder climbed into his saddle, he called: "Thanks jus' the same, Ike, but I won't stay to dinner. Now I got to telegram Waller some more to get a new description o' that Sturgis feller."

Nancy thought, "I was wrong on one count. Evidently there's no tie-up between the sheriff and Roger J. Barcley. Yet what, oh what shall I do?"

The noon meal was ready when Stuttering Jake, returning from Jimtown, parked the T Slash truck before the cookshack. He had groceries, miscellaneous other items, a sack of mail and several large parcel post packages from Chicago for Miss Marcia Louise Farnsworth.

Mrs. Perriwell took immediate charge of the mail sack, remarking: "This batch of New York papers will please my husband," and hung it over the back of the chair in which she had seated herself for dinner. Nancy had caught a glimpse of a letter from her uncle, yet she dared not ask for it.

When the meal was over, Cinders, grinning cheerfully, carried armload after armload of wood to the kitchen until the woodbox was full. He also carried in bucketsful of fresh water, filled the reservoir and said: "I kinda like these chores, Bobbie, because they give me a chance to be near you . . . Tired, aren't you? . . . Let me wipe the dishes. Better still, I'll wash and you perch on that stool to wipe."

Ike Skittles chuckled. "The 'rangement suits me, young uns. You see, right after dinner I generally catches me forty winks, 'count maybe o' the old age a-creepin' up onto me. Bobbie, I ain't goin' to tell you a daggone thing more to do 'till toward supper time."

Ike clumped into his bedroom. Only a moment later Cinders and Nancy heard him snoring. The girl sat on the stool as directed and wiped dishes for Cinders. How happy and carefree the ruddy-faced fellow seemed. What could he—Don Sturgis—have done that her uncle wanted him placed under arrest?

She couldn't ask Cinders about a think like that; nor could she tell him about the obnoxious Anthony Thomas Perriwell, and ask him to douse that young man in the river, slap his ugly mouth and blacken his fishlike popeyes.

Big Outside Entry Promised for Golf At Oak Bay Course

Many Out-of-Town Shotmakers, Men and Women, From All Parts of Canada, Coming Here Next Month—Women to Start Play at Colwood

golfers, men and women, were entered in the thirteenth annual Empress Winter tournament, which will be played at the Oak Bay course from March 10 to 15, inclusive, with the Colwood club assisting. The latter links will have the women contenders for the first three days and then the fair sex will swing over and finish their competition at the sea-bordering course at Oak Bay. To officials in charge of arrangements it appears that the tournament record will be shattered this year.

Aside from a big entry from Seattle, Portland, Vancouver, and other leading Pacific Northwest cities, the list shows the names of Mr. and Mrs. A P Vigneaux, of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Buckingham, Guelph, Ont., and Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Sutherland, Fort William, as Ontario standard-bearers.

Twenty Winnipeg golfers, including Mrs. R K Beairsto, former Manitoba champion, and Carson McWilliams, the former Calgary campaigner, and another twenty from Calgary, lead an unusually big Prairie contingent. Among Calgary entrants is Wilder Ripley, who paired with Stan Leonard to win the Alberta pro-amateur crown last Summer and later defeated Ralph Whaley, of Seattle, to clean up Banff's golf week in August. Whaley, with other Seattle sharpshooters like Lee Steil and Ernie Ketcham, will be out at Oak Bay for the chummy handicap tournament next month.

Mrs. Helen Ripley, of Calgary, runner-up at Banff in August, also is entered, and Mrs. Rena O'Callaghan, Vancouver runner-up for the British Columbia crown last year, is another starter.

With three weeks still to go, the entry list to date includes: Mr. and Mrs. Mel Crawford, Critchley, Alta.; George Roberts, Dr. J G. Young, Dr. Alan Day and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Chapman, Edmonton; Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Barker, Miss M. Dodds, Mrs. Blanche Levy, Colonel and Mrs. Fred Shouldice, Dr. William Hackney, John J. Tynan, Mr. and Mrs. Wilder Ripley, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mackay, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Love, all of Calgary; J. C. Beveridge, Medicine Hat; Mr. and Mrs. Angus McNeill, Saskatoon, Mr and Mrs H. C. Cowdry, Regina; Mr. and Mrs. R. K Beairsto, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Moore, H. C. McWilliams, Mr. and Mrs W G. Thompson, Mr and Mrs. Herbert H Cottingham, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hastings, Dr. and Mrs O. Fahrni, J. R Milne, Mr. and Mrs. all of Winnipeg, Mr. and Mrs. P A. Strobeckl, Seattle Wash.; Mr and Mrs. George E. Bronaugh, Portland, Dr and Mrs. C H Kisky; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E Watson Portland, and Dr and Mrs. Frank E. Fowler, Astoria, Ore.

NEAT CARD TO BE HELD

Thunderbird Vs. Katan and Jackson Vs. Parks Is Saturday's Show

Another attractive wrestling programme has been lined up for the fans Saturday night at the Army and Navy Veterans, Wharf Street, when Promoter Kyle presents a neat looking and appetizing double main event. The usual preliminary will start the show at 8 o'clock and a big turn out is expected to cram the building.

For one half of his double main, the local matchmaker has signed up Chief Thunderbird, the hip big Saanich Indian who claims he is scared of no heavyweight in the game today, and John Katan, Drumheller, Alberta, in a five-round bout, while Bulldog Jackson, known to the ringsiders in other Northwest cities as the "Yukon Terror," will be tossed up against Herb Parks, a clever grappler who has appeared before.

The Thunderbird-Katan duo met in Vancouver last Thursday night and, according to Mainland press reports, it was a wild and woolly affair. Apparently both lads forgot the scientific end of wrestling and went at it hammer and tongs. The referee gave up in disgust and told the boys to go to it and may the best man win. However, it is doubtful if Victoria's referee, husky Stan Miles, will permit any of the rough tactics used in Vancouver.

Bulldog Jackson is a tough hombre in the ring but mild as a lamb outside. Two weeks ago he met Jack McLaughlin in Vancouver and it was the bout which stole the spotlight. In Parks the Bulldog will be up against a clever heavy, so therefore plenty of action should be the keynote of this clash.

Toronto Forward Moves Into Runner-Up Position in Scoring Race

(By the Canadian Press)

Syl Apps, of Toronto, closed in a little on the leading Bill Cowley, of Boston, in the National Hockey League individual scoring race when he counted both goals in the Maple Leafs' 2-2 draw with the Bruins Tuesday night. Cowley went pointless when Art Jackson bagged both Bruin goals. One other game was played, with Bryan Hextall, of the Rangers, strengthening his hold on third place by scoring once in the Rangers' 3-2 victory over the Americans. Neil Colville also counted one Ranger goal to force a three-way tie for fifth position.

Maple Leaf Rush That Failed to Hit Mark

There was no lack of hustle either way in the hockey game between the Boston Bruins and the Toronto Maple Leafs, with the Bruins taking the decision, 3-2, via a last period goal by Reardon. Despite the fact that they finished on the short end of the score, Leafs staged many a rally. Here the Bruins are checkmating the Leafs, with Brimsek down and Apps in possession of the puck back of the net. The other players are (14) Dumart, with Crawford to his left and Davidson just back of the Boston defenceman. Dit Clapper, of the Bruins, is to the left of the cage; (17) is Bauer, while Nick Metz is located to the left of the Boston forward.

The Victoria-S A R game was featured by a fight in the second period when Brabant and Harrison tangled. Soldier spectators rushed the ice, but were soothed down by Rink Manager Bill Phillips. PAYS $137.80 AT THE TRACK

Hilfair, Rank Outsider, Surprises Turf Followers At Hialeah

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 19 (AP).—Mrs. H. C Phipps' Snow Ridge qualified for the $50,000 added Widener Challenge Cup by winning the Atlantic City purse at Hialeah Park today, but a poorly-regarded plater named Hilfair caused more excitement.

Hilfair, owned by W W Stone, startled a crowd of 14,928 by winning the turf course seventh race and paying $137.80 for $2 in the straight mutuels.

Apprentice Jockey Sam Luce booted Hilfair to the finish line a length in front of Grey Dill, with Sweet Shono third in the mile and one-half race.

The surprise winner paid $50.90 to place and $19.50 to show, Grey Dill refunding $12.70 and $5.90, and Sweet Shono paying $5.30 on the show end.

Snow Ridge under 111 pounds including Jockey Porter Roberts drove to a length victory over J A. Miles' Play House with James B Campbell's Devil's Crag another half-length behind.

The Phipps colt ran the mile and one-quarter—the Widener distance—in 2:03 2-5.

VANCOUVER, Feb 18 (CP)—Vancouver's fire loss during 1940 totaled $227,179, the lowest since such records were started here in 1912, Fire Chief Archie McDiarmid informed the civic fire committee yesterday in submitting his annual report.

Canadian Basketball Champions Eliminated by Angelus Five

VANCOUVER, Feb. 19 (CP)—Vancouver Angelus came from behind with a last-minute power drive tonight, defeating Maple Leafs, 36-34, to win the semi-final inter-city basketball series in two straight games and the right to meet University of British Columbia in the best-of-five final, beginning here next Wednesday. Angelus won the first game of the semi-final series Saturday, 47-40.

The play went the Leafs' way until the final quarter, when Angelus sank nine points without a reply. Young Earl McDonagh sank the winning basket with less than thirty seconds to go.

Leafs held a 17-7 lead at the end of the first quarter, were ahead 24-14 at the half, and had a 27-22 edge at three-quarter time.

Billy McLaughlan, of Angelus, emerged as high scorer for the night with eleven points; and George McConnell, of Maple Leafs, had nine.

BILL LEE NOT SIGNED

NEW ORLEANS La, Feb 18 (AP).—Bill Lee, who pitched Chicago Cubs to a pennant in 1938 and then ran into two lean years of mound efforts, said today he has not signed his 1941 contract and added: "It doesn't look as though I will."

"They even wrote me that they would not give me as good a contract as they offered if I did not report on time," Lee said, "but I still feel that I am worth all that I am asking so am going to do my training here."

Lee's stand was made known in a letter to The Associated Press from his home in Plaquemine, La.

CHICAGO, Feb 18 (AP)—Chicago White Sox said today that every player on the 1941 roster is under contract for the coming season. Pete Appleton, righthanded relief hurler, became the thirty-fifth and final player to come to terms.

DOMINOES CAPTURE FIRST CAGE TUSSLE IN SENIOR PLAY-OFF

Trim Tillicum Arrows in Opening Game for Basketball Honors, 45-22—Norm Baker Flashes Great Form and Scores Fifteen Points—St. Louis College Whips Nanaimo Easily

Manager Dave Nicol's Victoria Dominoes, former national hoop champions, last night moved to within one game of the city championship and the right to represent this city in the provincial playdowns, when they trounced the Tillicum Athletic Club Arrows, 45-22, in the first of the two-game series for the honors.

Moving out in front 10-4 at the end of the first quarter, and increasing their lead to twenty-one points at the half, with the score 29-8 in their favor, Dominoes rode to an easy victory over the clubbers. Second contest will be played early next month.

Brother Whalen's St. Louis College junior boys' hoopsters ran their current season's winning streak to seventeen games by turning back Nanaimo, 32-10, in the first of the home-and-home series for the Vancouver Island title. Final fixture of the total-point series will be played on the Nanaimo floor.

In the evening's curtain raiser, Jack Taylor's Cardinals, preparing for their British Columbia senior "A" women's play-downs at Vancouver next month, defeated Bob Whyte's Adverts, 22-16. Feature of the Cards' performance was their perfect shooting from the foul strip, where they converted all of six free throws.

Blond-thatched Norman Baker, one of the most improved players on the Dominoes' club, again paced the former Canadian champions to victory. Young Baker, who celebrated his eighteenth birthday only Monday, had a gala evening, pushing up fifteen points, eight in the first half and seven in the final canto. "Busher" Jackson, enjoying one of his best seasons, and the ever reliable "Chuck" Chapman, ace guard and playing captain, each potted nine points to take second place in the scoring parade.

Lanky Vic Dale, T.A.C. Arrows' centre picked off four field goals, all in the last half, to lead the clubbers. "Sonny" Walker, again back in the line-up, and Hall, young soldier hoopster, pushed up four points each to follow Dale in the point-getting.

PLAY IS FAST

Play was fast and rugged most of the way, with the earlier minutes of the contest being quite exciting. Clubbers managed to stay with their opponents for a few minutes, but when the Dominoes started to pull away not even the fighting T.A.C. Arrows, and they were really scrapping, could stem the offensive.

Dominoes, master marksmen, cut through for a number of smart baskets, and were certainly a vastly superior club when anywhere near the hoop. Arrows could not match the shooting of the former national titleholders, and actually missed a number of shots right under the basket.

Trailing by twenty-one points at the half-time breather, clubbers never quit trying, and while they were badly beaten, gave the locals just about as much trouble as some of the visiting clubs seen in action at the Sports Centre this season. In the two final quarters the clubs pushed up thirty-four points, the Dominoes scoring six more than the T.A.C. Arrows.

Young Reg Clarkson, who must be ranked as one of the best junior snipers in the city, paced St. Louis College to their one-sided triumph over Nanaimo in the Island final. The starry young forward collected nineteen points, more than half the total scored by the unbeaten Collegians.

Nanaimo, smaller than the locals, played a slow-breaking game in the first two quarters, but speeded up their play in the last half. Visitors moved the ball around slowly, but their style of play did not help them, as they had no way of finishing in front of the basket.

St. Louis College outscored them in every quarter, setting up a 11-3 lead in the opening stanza and moving out in front, 17-7, at half-time. Nanaimo failed to score in the third period, while the Collegians added seven points. In the final quarter the winners outscored their opponents by five points.

GODOY GIVES UP IDEA OF FIGHT

SANTIAGO, Chile, Feb. 18 (AP). — Arturo Godoy, Chilean heavyweight, apparently has given up the idea of going to the United States to meet Champion Joe Louis in April for the third time.

Godoy said today he plans to leave tomorrow for Buenos Aires to make a Spanish-language picture and would return to Chile before going to the United States. He said he hopes to get a bout with Louis in August.

Promoter Mike Jacobs had given Godoy until March 10 to appear in the United States or forfeit his April 21 bout with Louis. Matchmaker Nat Rogers said on Wednesday Jacobs is negotiating with Bob Pastor as an opponent for Louis.

BELLOISE WINS EASILY

NEW YORK, Feb. 18 (AP).—Steve Belloise, New York middleweight contender, wiped out a previous defeat last night when he knocked out Andre Jessurun, another New Yorker, in 2 17 of the seventh round of a ten-round bout at the Coliseum. Belloise weighed 153 1-2, Jessurun 152 1-4.

RAMBLERS IN HOCKEY WIN

Rangers' Farm Club Scores 3-1 Victory Over New Haven Eagles

HERSHEY, Pa., Feb 18 (AP) — Vince Germann's goal in the third period enabled Hershey Bears to hand Indianapolis Caps a [illegible] defeat in the American Hockey League here tonight.

The victory enabled them to strengthen their dwindling hold on second place in the Western Division of the league. Gordon Bruce and Pat McCreavy started the scoring play deep in the Caps' defence zone. Bruce drove the rubber across the ice and McCreavy passed to Germann.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 18 (AP).—Philadelphia Ramblers defeated New Haven, 3-1, tonight and gained two points on the Eagles in the two club's battle for third place in the American Hockey League.

Herb Foster sparked the Ramblers' attack with two goals, Abby Collings batting in the other. Lou Trudell shot New Haven's goal on a face-off.

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 18 (AP).—Pittsburgh Hornets tonight defeated Cleveland's Barons, 4-2, in an American League hockey game, their first triumph in six meetings with the Western Division leaders.

The victory, accomplished by a third-period rally and three brilliant goals by Lloyd Roubell, gave the Hornets undisputed possession of fourth place in the Western Division, one game behind Indianapolis.

Budd Knott, rookie defenceman, scored the fourth Pittsburgh goal. Les Cunningham and Jaffre Desilets tallied for Cleveland.

HANSON CHARGES EXTRAVAGANCE

on the resolution preliminary to introducing the War Appropriation Bill.

DEBT-FREE MONEY

It was the regular Wednesday short sitting and the House adjourned after Victor Quelch (N.D., Acadia), third speaker in the debate, had presented an argument for financing the war by the issue of debt-free money.

T. L. Church (Con., Toronto-Broadview) adjourned the debate and will be first speaker when the House resumes tomorrow afternoon.

Although he assailed the Government's performance since the war started and before, Mr. Hanson said the Opposition would not take advantage of "this failure of the Government" to serve the nation according to its needs.

"In this time of war we dare not permit the Government of Canada to be discredited," he said. "England is looking to Canada for help. The United States is looking to Canada to see what is the measure of our effort."

NO PARTISANSHIP

He called for a complete renunciation by Prime Minister Mackenzie King and his colleagues of all partisanship connected with the war effort.

"It is assumed that inflation in any form is definitely barred, notwithstanding what some people may say; and with that decision, at the moment at least, I am not taking any exception," Mr. Hanson said in commenting upon the war appropriations. "Inflation as a means of financing this enormous programme at this time would, in my opinion, be a false move.

"Later on, we may have to come to a measure of inflation, but we have not reached that point yet. [illegible] attack on the problem must come from all three angles; and, without question, one of the first things to be done is the paring down to the bare bone, if possible, all non-defence or peacetime spending, all along the line.

PEACETIME COSTS

"Turning first to peacetime spending: I am sure there will be great disappointment in the country that the estimates for the fiscal year ending March 31, 1942, tabled on Monday last, show a very small reduction in the total of ordinary peacetime costs of Government," said Mr. Hanson.

"On paper, the total reduction, as compared with the fiscal year ending March 31, 1941, is $18,119,000. Of this figure, however, $15,000,000 is represented by the fact that no provision is required for the deficit of the Canadian National Railways."

No credit should or could be taken by the Government for the fact that a Canadian National Railways deficit seemed unlikely. That was accounted for entirely by the increased volume of transportation.

It was a surprise to him and he believed to the people of Canada that notwithstanding this great improvement in traffic the cash deficit of the Canadian National Railways last year was estimated at $16,965,000.

"I think an immediate and full explanation is due to the people of Canada," he said. "The net result of the reductions in the estimate is, therefore, only a saving of $3,381,000 and, most emphatically, that is not good enough.

DECENNIAL CENSUS

"Why is it necessary, to take an isolated example, to spend a sum in excess of $2,800,000 in taking the decennial census? I am quite aware that, under the provisions of the British North America Act, the Government is required to have the census taken. But Canada is at war.

"The taking of the census is a purely peacetime activity. It could be postponed and, as a matter of fact, in my view it ought to be postponed."

Mr. Hanson protested against the large number of employees on Government publicity. He said available records indicated there were eighty-six employees in publicity with salaries aggregating $164,000 a year, and that the Bureau of Public Information alone, up to November 30, 1940, had cost $202,000.

WASTE OF PUBLIC FUNDS

"I protest against this expenditure," he declared. "It is an unnecessary waste of public funds. The newspapers of this country will get the news, and it will not be 'canned' news, either."

The Opposition Leader declared there was "grave uneasiness with respect to Canada's war effort." Production of war materials had progressed well in many respects, but "in many notable instances it is bogging down."

Munitions Minister Howe was capable but had no time nor opportunity to work out a master production plan. In his efforts to personally direct his great responsibilities, "I am told he does not give any of his lieutenants authority over more than one isolated phase of the work at one time."

Commenting on the fact that Mr. Howe retained control over Trans-Canada Air Lines "and other unrelated activities," he said the Minister's major job had been described as "a thirty-ring circus, and he insists on running several sideshows."

MASTER PLAN NEEDED

A "master war plan" was needed for Canada, and to draft such a plan there should be "a war cabinet composed of the best men in the country, freed from the confining detail of departmental administration and departmental duties."

He charged that "until quite recently at least, the war and its responsibilities were not taken seriously enough by the Government."

The Government should be strengthened, even if it retained its party affiliations by obtaining the best men available.

"There are those who believe that the war effort of the Government, being of such a mushroom growth has reached a state of, shall I say chaos, and that the record of the past eighteen months stands at an all-time high in futility," he said.

"With the possible exception of the production of motor units and that sort of equipment, everything has gone wrong except the courage and capacity of our fighting forces and the willingness of labor and industry to work and produce, if properly directed."

He charged that the Government had done nothing at the start of war to ensure "rapid and effective mobilization of the nation."

It embarked upon a policy of moderate and not maximum co-operation.

POLITICAL EXPEDIENCY

"The measure of this country's contribution was governed by political expediency," he declared.

Mr. Hanson declared the Prime Minister should not only renounce partisanship, but have his followers make the same renunciation, and that he should announce that his Cabinet is to be strengthened and reorganized.

Mr. Hanson made reference to the war effort of other parts of the Empire, including Australia. The Prime Minister asked him where he got the idea Australia had acted differently from Canada.

"The fact is, Australia is on the field of battle and Canada is not," Mr. Hanson said.

"That is not correct. Canada is very much on the field of battle," Mr. King retorted.

Mr. Hanson replied that Australians were in Libya, while Canada had only a few airmen in England and a few troops in training there.

He Is Praising Mosby's Tonic

This Westerner Had Stomach Gas, Bloat and Pain — Bowels Badly Constipated — He Now Says: "Mosby's Tonic Gave Me Relief and I Feel Fine Again!"

Seldom in history, say some of the Leading Druggists of this city, has any medicine been so widely endorsed as has MOSBY'S TONIC. This is a New Mixture of Roots and Herbs and Other Splendid Medicinal Agents now being introduced to the public daily at The Cunningham Drug Stores All over Victoria and throughout Western Canada, people are praising this Splendid Compound and are saying, "I never SAW anything like Mosby's Tonic. It certainly gave me relief, and I want others to know it!" For instance, just a few days ago, Mr Thos Hamilton, of 923 Main St., Vancouver, B.C., made the following statement. Read his Sincere Testimonial.

MR. HAMILTON

Gas Swelling Made Clothes Feel Tight

"I think I had one of the worst cases of stomach distress that you ever heard of," said Mr Hamilton. "My stomach would swell up with gas way beyond normal size. My clothes felt so tight on me that I could hardly stand it. And oh! how my stomach would burn. The gas would extend up into my throat and made me short of breath. My bowels were so badly constipated that they wouldn't move without a laxative. I spent all kinds of money for medicines, but got no relief. Thought I would never find anything to help me. Then recently I found Mosby's Tonic and I want to say that this medicine just seemed to take command of my suffering. Now I don't have gas bloating at all. I can eat without having any pains of indigestion. It also regulated my bowels so that I don't have to take laxatives any more. I am glad to give you my statement and publicly endorse Mosby's Tonic, for it is the only thing that ever relieved me."

Anybody Can Afford to Take Mosby's Tonic!

Sufferers! Due to the immense volume in which it sells, the Price of Mosby's Tonic is Reasonable. It is within the reach Of ALL. In fact, you can actually take this Splendid Formula for just a few cents per day. MOSBY'S TONIC is sold in Victoria at the CUNNINGHAM DRUG STORE, Fort and Douglas Sts., and also sold by all Leading Druggists throughout Victoria and Vancouver Island. (Advt.)

According to Culbertson

The greatest change in biddable suits in the new Culbertson system concerns four card suits. Heretofore no four card suit weaker than Q-J-x-x has been considered biddable. This rule had many good points, but it also had decided "bugs," in that it often distorted a following sequence of bids. For example, a player who picked up a hand such as found himself in quite a dilemma. He had three honor tricks, but neither of his major suits was biddable. Hence, if he followed strict requirements, he either had to pass or make an admittedly dangerous call on his three card diamond suit. Now that conditional biddable suits have been reduced to as low as Q-x-x-x, a hand like this can be bid naturally, that is, its holder starts with the highest suit and bids one spade. No response from partner can be embarrassing. Over two clubs or two diamonds, the opener can make the "cheap" rebid of two hearts.

♠ K 10 5 2 ♥ A 8 7 4 ♦ A Q 8 ♣ 8 7

The plus valuation now attached to singletons also will affect the bidding of four card suits

♠ A K 8 3 ♥ 8 ♦ 7 5 4 2 ♣ K J 5 5

Under the old count, this hand contained only two and one-half plus honor tricks, and since three honor tricks were required for a four card suit bid, it could not conventionally be opened. Now, counting in the plus value for the singleton, the hand contains three honor tricks and becomes an orthodox one club bid. This is as it should be since there is a great deal more to lose than to gain by passing these borderline holdings.

1 ♦	Pass	2 ♠	2 ♥
3 ♦	Pass	Pass	Dbl (2)
Pass	Pass	Pass

(1) Third hand with a strong suit, a lead-directing bid of this kind is good.

(2) East's final double was a little optimistic. Even if he counted on both the major suits going around twice, he still would have to pick up a club trick. Perhaps East counted on a little help from South. If so, his confidence was well founded.

West opened his top heart and East won with the king. The king and ace of spades were taken and South ruffed the spade continuation. Three rounds of diamonds cleared up the trump situation, and then declarer looked around for new worlds to conquer. He noted with interest the ace, queen and jack of clubs, and looked at the ten in his own hand speculatively. A finesse seemed indicated and, without much ado, declarer led the ten of clubs and let it ride. East gratefully won with the king and cashed the ace of hearts to defeat the contract.

If South had used even elementary planning, he would have realized that he could afford to give away only four tricks. Simple counting would have shown him that the club finesse was dangerous, and his next step would have been to look for means to avoiding it. How simple it should have been to set up a heart trick after disposing of the trumps! Then the ace of clubs would have been the entry for a club discard on the extra heart in dummy.

Decline Resumed By Securities in New York Mart

NEW YORK, Feb 19 (AP).—Security markets resumed the decline today and many shares sold at the lowest this year in contrast with a rise in commodities on the Far Eastern war threat.

Such imported raw materials as rubber, tin, pepper and silk were the fastest movers on the advance.

As in the previous sessions of falling stocks and bonds, Wall Street was concerned partly with calculation of what the United States' shift toward a war economy would mean in way of higher taxes and restrictions on normal business activities.

Despite the huge defence order backlogs in aircraft, shipbuilding and kindred industries, share prices in those groups were marked down with the general list.

Off fractions to more than a point at the finish were U.S. Steel, Bethlehem, Westinghouse, Du Pont Chrysler, Douglas Aircraft, United Aircraft, Boeing, Anaconda, Kennecott and Standard Oil of New Jersey.

American Telephone fell 2, ending at 156 3-4. American Airlines lost 2 3-4 at 40 1-2.

The Associated Press composite price of sixty stocks finished at 38.9, almost duplicating the 1941 bottom made last week, which was the lowest since the collapse of France in June, 1940. Transactions increased to 465,430 shares from 220,-050 yesterday.

COMPLIMENT?

EULOGY IS PAID TO LIEUT-COM. BALFOUR BY LORD ELIBANK

In The Times, London, of January 20 there appears a very warm tribute to Lieut.-Cmdr. Sydney H. Balfour, R.N., written by his uncle, Lord Elibank. The letter recalls the very worthy part that the deceased played in navy operations. He concludes his tribute to his nephew, who had had a worthy part in the naval actions in the 1914 war with Germany in the following way:

"Now he has gone to swell the ranks of those who have died, so valiantly and patriotically giving their lives to defend the liberties of our race and to destroy the evil dominion of Hitler and Nazidom—and I know he would be the first to say with that gentle, attractive smile of his, 'Well! It was worth while.'"

The tribute recalled the main facts in connection with the life of Lieut.-Cmdr. Balfour during the former war, his retirement from the Navy and his entering into business in Vancouver, where he settled down and 'married a charming Scots-Canadian girl' to whom the uncle extends his deep sympathy. Mrs. Balfour was Doreen Grant, daughter of Mrs. T. Beauchamp Tye, well known in Victoria.

LLANDAFF CATHEDRAL BLASTED BY BOMBS

CARDIFF, Wales, Feb. 19 (CP).—Stately Llandaff Cathedral, one of the oldest Christian foundations in the United Kingdom, has been added to the number of churches battered and burned by bombs.

A stick of bombs dropped across the cathedral's grounds blasted a crater among the ancient graves, unroofed the nave on the south side and blew out the windows.

Little damage was caused to the mediaeval part of the cathedral. Valuable modern treasures, including the Rosetti painting, much of the modern glass and the statue of the Virgin in the Lady Chapel, were placed under special protection after outbreak of the war.

That Body of Yours
By JAMES W. BARTON, M.D.

USUAL SYMPTOMS OF HEART DISEASE CAN BE CAUSED BY OTHER CONDITIONS AS WELL

A patient consulted his physician about his heart as he had been reading about the symptoms of heart disease. "I get out of breath very easily. Is that a sign of heart disease?"

"Yes," said the physician, "that is a sign of heart disease, but it could also be caused by eating too much acid food, reducing your weight and causing an almost acid condition of the blood and tissues. Breathlessness could also be caused by an obstruction in the nose which prevents enough air getting to the lungs. In those who are overweight getting out of breath easily is very common."

"I also have a pain at times under my breastbone. Isn't that a sign of heart disease?"

"Pain under breastbone is a sign of angina pectoris—a form of heart disease—but this pain can be caused by gas in the stomach or even gas in the large intestine, a section of which crosses the body from right to left just a few inches below the heart. It also can be caused by a nose obstruction. Just being excited or emotionally upset can so interfere with proper breathing that pain under breastbone occurs."

What about murmurs? Murmurs occurring with the first beat of the heart and disappearing with exercise are not considered symptoms of heart disease. Murmur occurring with the second beat of the heart, when heart is receiving blood from the lungs and the veins, is considered a definite sign of heart disease. While an enlarged heart is considered a sign of heart disease, it is known that some individuals are born with a large heart or a small heart, either of which may not be greatly affected as to size by exercise or work.

In an article on heart disease in the Journal of the American Medical Association, Dr. Tinsley R. Harrison, Nashville, Tenn., in describing the most important form of heart failure—the "congestive type"—says, "No single sign of congestive failure is specific (a sure sign of heart disease) as all the manifestations or signs of heart disease may, at times, be produced by other conditions."

The thought then is that as the usual signs of heart failure can be produced by other conditions, a thorough examination by the family physician and dentist may reveal cause of the symptoms.

B.C. LOG SCALE OPENS BRISKLY

tion Measured at 188,- January Saw Log Produc- 290,513 Board Feet

British Columbia's official saw log scale for January amounted to 188,- 290,513 board feet, it was announced yesterday by the Provincial Forest Service. This exclusive of poles and cordwood, indicated an early start in the woods this year.

In addition to the saw log scale, 1,538,674 lineal feet of poles and piling, 13,294 cords of small wood, and 8,149 pieces of pewn ties were measured during the month past.

The bulk of the cut was in fir species, with Western hemlock, cedar and spruce in normal proportions.

A mild Winter was said to be facilitating operations in the woods at nearly all points throughout the province.

PROPANGANDA NOW SENT BY MESSENGER

SAN JOSE Costa Rica, Feb 19 (AP) —For the second time in the last few days Costa Rica's Postoffice Department has been forced to prevent the German Legation from using the mails for the spread of political propaganda. The German Legation has started to distribute its material by private messenger in view of the new postal regulations.

What Today Means

"PISCES"

If February 20 is your birthday the best hours for you on this date are from 10:45 a.m. to 12:45 p.m. from 2:45 to 4:45 p.m. and from 8:45 to 10:45 p.m. The danger periods are from 8:45 to 10:45 a.m., from 4:45 to 6:45 p.m., and from 10:45 p.m. until midnight.

Mental relief can be gained by going to the root of whatever is causing you concern on February 20. Thick questions will arouse many a person's ire and should not be resorted to except in extreme cases where straightforward questions are apt to be evaded. Unexpected changes in economic and political conditions may have a decided effect upon many individual plans for this date, particularly in the shifting of people having temporary quarters or dwelling places. Reckless spending on this date will be responsible for many of tomorrow's worries, so be conservative in your expenditures. Your strength of resolution may be tested, so be prepared to withstand any strain that may be imposed upon it. Married and engaged couples, and those planning an early engagement, will do well to accord respect to each other's opinions, for otherwise justified indignation is likely to upset peaceful relations.

If a woman and February 20 is your birthday, wisdom should characterize your decisions, especially those involving the regulation of domestic affairs. Maternal instincts make you ready to listen to everyone's troubles and cause you to be generous in your efforts to be of service to others. As a teacher, musician, artist, writer, sales agent, office executive, business manager, or engaged in a missionary form of activity you should achieve many triumphs and find yourself financially independent. Your married life should help you win many friends, and should bring both your husband and yourself in close accord regarding domestic and social activities.

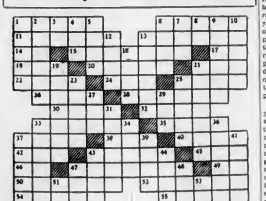

The child born on February 20, during its period of adolescence, learns to be entertaining and popular. Frequently children born on this date develop an unlimited amount of faith in human nature and this tends to make them extremely gullible until by experience, they realize that they must take much of what is said with a grain of salt.

If a man and February 20 is your natal day, do not harbor grudges if you expect to make the proper progress. "Forgive and forget" should be your motto. As a jurist, educator, actor, politician, contractor, builder, manufacturer, salesman, investor, clergyman, or business executive, your efforts should get results that will more than compensate you for your hard work.

PRISONERS GIVEN MASKS

LONDON Feb. 18 (CP) —The British, campaigning for everyone to carry gas masks, are handing them to German airmen and seamen as soon as they are brought in as prisoners. Voluntary visitors, too, usually are handed masks before their boats dock.

A BASE IS THAT ON WHICH A THING rests. When man wisely chooses the basis on which to allow his whole life to rest, will he then grow all those things that deter profitable growth. Feeding the body on such foods as our coarse whole wheat bread (free from molasses, sugar or white flour), our rye bread, our Roman Meal bread, our oats, flavis or some of our other lines of building foods and the mind on wholesome uplifting literature, that person will then find life more sweetly sweet. Your Health and Your Weight

REGULAR NOT HARD EXERCISE IS THE SECRET OF REDUCING WEIGHT

By JAS. W. BARTON, M.D.

A newspaper item tells of a professional "unfair conditions" picket who, during a period of two years, has walked 2,500 miles, read hundreds of books, and has lost fifty pounds on her job.

The interesting point about this for everybody, particularly overweights, is that this picket walked 2,500 miles and lost fifty pounds of weight in two years. Now, 2,500 miles seems a long distance, but if divided by the number of days in two years, less holidays and Saturday afternoons, it would not be more than one mile an hour at most. Yet this light regular exercise reduced her weight by fifty pounds which, while a large amount for any individual to lose, works out at about one-half pound a week or about two pounds a month.

Why did this small amount of exercise do so much for this woman? It was because of its regularity. Systematic or regular exercise, taken twice daily in small amounts or three times a week in larger amounts, gradually increases muscular tissue and just as gradually decreases or burns up fat tissue.

Outdoor exercise is, of course, much more enjoyable, beneficial and stimulating. However, as mentioned before, any arrangement for tennis, golf, riding, rowing or other outdoor exercise means two or three days' exercise one week and perhaps none the following week. Similarly, trying to get all exercise possible over the week-end may do more harm than good in that fatigue products from the prolonged exercise of the week-end may remain in the body for days instead of being removed by one night's good rest and a single brisk walk. This means a "tired" feeling between week-ends.

However, one little suggestion to these overweights who get exercise only over the week-end is that during the week they take a few long breaths (outdoors, if possible), breathing the air in and out of the lungs slowly, a number of times daily. This helps to get rid of the wastes or fatigue products in their muscles much more rapidly. Breathing exercises are particularly helpful to overweights, most of whom have lungs not as large in proportion as the lungs in those of normal weight.

However, indoor exercise can always be taken and its regularity increases heart and lung power and prevents the stiffness or pain suffered by those who take exercise only "occasionally."

Nature allows fat to accumulate on healthy individuals because fat is fuel that can be stored in and on the body to be used when the individual is not getting enough food. It has only that one purpose—fuel. A very fat individual is thus carrying around a storehouse of fuel which he not only doesn't need, but which actually interferes with body processes by increasing the amount of work they have to do. Fat is simply a load on the individual because it is not an active tissue like muscle that moves him about.

It is because exercise prevents the storage of fat, and actually exchanges active tissue for inactive tissue, that makes exercise so valuable to the overweight. A few minutes invested in exercise daily by an overweight creates for him an asset — muscular strength — and he gets rid of a liability—excess fat.

Practically everybody, old and young, can take some exercise daily if it is only a walk about the house or a few long breaths. While overweights are usually healthy, there are some in whom the overweight may have caused the heart to be overworked and the blood vessels stretched so that they have lost some of their elastic tissue.

As it is possible that some slight or even serious damage has been done to the heart by the excess weight, before engaging in exercise all overweights should be examined by their family physician to learn just how much regular exercise they can take to reduce their weight safely. The physician is able to learn the condition of the heart by giving definite amounts of exercise, learning how much the heart rate is increased by the exercise, and the amount of time — two or three minutes—required to return to its normal rate.

CANADIAN-MADE TANKS ON TEST

Munitions Minister Says Armor Plate Now Being Made in Dominion

OTTAWA, Feb. 18 (CP).—Several tanks have been built in Canada so far for test purposes, Munitions Minister Howe said in a statement in the House of Commons.

"These include a new model which is distinctly Canadian in every respect and which has a Canadian-built engine."

The minister said this tank was designed by engineers of the Department of Munitions and Supply and the Department of Defence. "It now is under test," his statement added.

Mr. Howe also said armor plate of high quality is being made in Canada for the first time in preparation for large-scale production of tanks in the Dominion.

"While tooling-up is progressing rapidly in the shops where the tanks are being assembled, Ontario steel mills are busily engaged in producing the required armor plate and armor-plate castings," the minister said.

MANY PARTS NEEDED

"Construction of a tank involves the assembly of some 200 separate pieces of armor plate, all shaped and machined, which range in thickness from an eighth of an inch to several inches, and in weight from 600 pounds to more than a ton.

"The steel is of a special alloy which demands unusual care in heat treatment and procession. Because of its toughness, it is not easy to machine, and about 18,000 man-hours are required to machine and assemble the armor plate for a single tank."

Mr. Howe said that orders have been placed in Canada for two types of tanks, and at least ten companies will participate in the armor plate operations. All major parts, except the engines and transmission, will be made in Canada, including the guns.

MOBILE LIBRARY WORK DESCRIBED

C. K. Morison, Provincial Librarian, Addresses Canadian Authors' Association Meeting

The duties of a regional librarian are rather like those of a country doctor—a little bit of everything—

C. K. Morison, provincial librarian, told a meeting of the Canadian Authors' Association in the Empress Hotel Tuesday night in an amusing and instructive talk on "Ramblings of a Book Peddler."

Mr. Morison who, for six of seven years before taking over the duties of provincial librarian recently, was regional librarian in the Fraser Valley, spoke of the travelling libraries and the work they were doing throughout the country. He took his audience on an imaginary tour in the book van on Route 6, and gave some interesting sidelights on the reading tastes of the different districts and the efforts of the library service to provide the books the people wanted, and at the same time to improve their reading taste.

The vote of thanks, moved by Rev. J. P. Hicks, was seconded by Hon. Archer Martin, who recalled having been associated with all provincial librarians since the inception of the library, and expressed pleasure in greeting Mr. Morison.

CRAFTS TALK

A crafts talk, "Developing a Prose Style," was given by Mrs. Robin Breach, who quoted largely from the works of present-day magazine and book writers. Miss Margaret Sullivan read poems recently published by members of the association, including some of Pauline Havard, E. Hope Kerr, M. Eugenie Perry, Anne Marriott and Doris Perne, and the president, Mrs. Myrtle E. Lane, reviewed books recently published by Miss Marriott and Mrs. Irene Baird. Songs were contributed by Mrs. Parnell, formerly Miss Edna Dilworth.

It was announced that on Monday, February 24, a tea would be held in the Oakbay Beach Hotel in honor of Lady Byng and Dr. and Mrs. Dungan Campbell Scott. Those wishing to attend were asked to notify the secretary, G 2037.
